Item 8.01 Other Events.

On March 9, 2017, AMC Entertainment Holdings, Inc. ("the Company") reached an agreement with National CineMedia, Inc. ("NCM") to implement the requirements of the final judgment entered in connection with the DOJ approval of the Carmike Cinemas, Inc. ("Carmike") acquisition. Pursuant to the agreement, the Company will receive approximately 18,400,000 NCM common units related to annual attendance at the Carmike theatres. Because the Carmike theatres were subject to a pre-existing agreement with a third party and will not receive advertising services from NCM, the Company will be obligated to make quarterly payments to NCM reflecting the estimated value of the advertising services at the Carmike theatres as if NCM had provided such services. The quarterly payments will continue until the earlier of (i) the date the theatres are transferred to the NCM network or (ii) expiration of the Exhibitor Services Agreement (the "ESA") with NCM. All calculations will be made pursuant to the terms of the existing ESA and Common Unit Adjustment Agreement with NCM. With regard to the existing AMC theatres on the NCM network that are required under the final judgment to be transferred to another advertising provider, the Company will return approximately 2,850,000 NCM common units to NCM, calculated under the Common Unit Adjustment Agreement as if such theatres had been disposed of on March 3, 2017. The Company is not obligated to make quarterly payments with respect to the transferred theatres. In addition, the Company will return 1,800,000 additional NCM common units (valued at approximately $25,000,000) in exchange for a waiver of exclusivity by NCM as to the required transferred theatres for the term of the final judgment, which is expected to be expensed as General and administrative: Merger, acquisition and transaction costs when the common units are returned to NCM. As a result of the agreement, the Company will receive approximately 13,750,000 net additional NCM common units, valued at approximately $175,038,000 based on the market price of NCM, Inc. stock on March 8, 2017. Due to the structure of the transactions, the Company will no longer anticipate recognizing taxable gain upon the receipt of the new NCM common units. The Company has also agreed to reimburse NCM up to $1,000,000 for expenses related to the negotiation of this agreement.

On March 10, 2017, the Company issued a press release relating to this agreement and the resolution of other unrelated legal matters. The press release is attached as Exhibit 99.1 hereto and incorporated by reference.

FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE

AMC Entertainment Holdings, Inc. Announces Beneficial Resolution of Two Matters

LEAWOOD, KANSAS - (March 10, 2017) — AMC Entertainment Holdings, Inc. (NYSE: AMC) (“AMC” or “the Company”), the largest theatrical exhibition company in the U.S., in Europe and in the world, and an industry leader in innovation and operational excellence, today announced it has resolved two outstanding matters on terms beneficial to AMC and its shareholders.

AMC Reaches Agreement with National CineMedia Inc. Enabling Close Co-operation Going Forward

AMC and National CineMedia Inc. (“NCM”) have reached an agreement that enables AMC to comply with the Department of Justice’s (DOJ) Final Order on AMC’s acquisition of Carmike Cinemas, Inc. and reaffirms the two companies’ commitment to their continued partnership.

“National CineMedia is a greatly valued partner of AMC, and these negotiations surrounding our acquisition of Carmike Cinemas have only served to strengthen our long-term mutual commitment going forward. We are delighted to have worked well for many years with NCM, and look forward to continuing that superb relationship for decades to come,” said Adam Aron, Chief Executive Officer and President of AMC.

The key terms of the agreement between AMC and NCM envision:

- (i) AMC and NCM having a strong marketing relationship for the next twenty years through at least 2037.
- (ii) The Exhibitor Services Agreement, detailing and defining that two-decade relationship, being enthusiastically supported by both AMC and NCM.
- (iii) AMC continuing, with a few specific exceptions, to own at least 4.5% of the total equity of NCM for at least the next ten years, and NCM co-operating to help AMC market in an orderly fashion those NCM shares that AMC is required to sell over the next 27 months as a result of AMC’s agreement with the DOJ Final Order.
- (iv) NCM continuing to have cinema advertising rights at all legacy AMC theatres prior to the Carmike acquisition and picking up advertising rights at all new or acquired theatres joining the AMC circuit in the United States going forward, except that AMC will not be utilizing the services of NCM at the acquired Carmike Cinemas, at the divested and transferred theatres described below, or potentially at some other theatres that may be acquired by AMC in the future until existing contract obligations at such other theatres have been fulfilled.

- (v) AMC divesting fewer than 20 theatres from the AMC and Carmike networks.
- (vi) AMC transferring away from NCM for a period of ten years the pre-show advertising rights at 17 AMC theatres, after which those theatres return to NCM for their cinema advertising.
- (vii) AMC absorbing up to $1 million of NCM’s legal and professional expenses associated with NCM reaching this agreement.
- (viii) AMC making economic concessions to NCM to protect lost NCM cash flow at the AMC and Carmike theatres not utilizing NCM for cinema advertising, which include a reduction of shares that AMC might otherwise have received as a result of the Carmike transaction.
- (ix) AMC receiving a net of more than 13,750,000 shares from NCM, worth approximately $175 million at today’s NCM closing market price. Two added benefits for AMC in receiving these shares is that the structure of the transaction has virtually eliminated tax leakage, and therefore also has preserved for future use the considerable value inherent in AMC’s remaining net operating loss carryforwards.

The accounting impacts related to the NCM agreement will occur in 2017 and beyond.

Aron added, “We are particularly excited about NCM’s vibrant future plans for the NCM pre-show appearing at our theatres. As a result, AMC will enjoy the benefit of our share of NCM-sold advertising revenues, and our guests will see continually more intriguing and engaging on-screen content.”

AMC Also Settles Unrelated Litigation

On a totally separate and unrelated matter, on March 8, 2017, AMC reached an agreement to settle for $7 million a lawsuit filed several years ago that was still pending as of December 31, 2016.

While AMC believed it would likely win at trial, the costs of defense were expected to be significant. The settlement avoids that litigation expense, and eliminates any uncertainty associated with the outcome of the litigation.

As the settlement was reached prior to the filing of AMC's 10-K for 2016, it gave rise to a "recognized subsequent event" resulting in an increase of $7,000,000 in other general and administrative expenses for the fourth quarter and full year ended December 31, 2016. The after-tax change reduction to 2016 Net Income is $4,270,000.
