The following communication was made available by Adam Aron on his X account @CEOAron, on April 5, 2024.

Our draft proxy shows I was awarded AMC stock in 2023 (that I can not sell any time soon) valued using SEC required methodology at $17.9 million. At yesterday's closing share price, it is actually worth $1,345,000. So my compensation -- valued presently -- was $16.5 million less.

Also on compensation: For 2024, I recommended to AMC's Board of Directors that my compensation be materially reduced given the pain being felt by our shareholders. We agreed my "target" compensation will be 25% less than last year's target, and 50% less than last year's actual.

I continue to be one of AMC's largest shareholders with an economic interest in about 2 million owned or granted AMC shares. Other than to fund mandatory federal and state income tax withholdings, I have not sold even one AMC share since January of 2022. I ride with you.
