Item 8.01 Other Events.

On September 21, 2026, the Company issued a press release announcing that it has commenced a private offering (the "Offering") of $2,000 million aggregate principal amount of first lien notes due 2031 (the "Notes") and launched syndication of a new $850 million first lien term loan facility (the "New 1L Term Loan Facility" and together with the Offering, the "1L Financing"), each subject to market and other conditions. The New 1L Term Loans are expected to have a maturity date of five years from the closing date of the Offering.

The Company also announced its entry into a commitment letter with Deutsche Bank AG New York Branch providing for a new second lien term loan facility in an aggregate principal amount of $1,120 million (the "New 2L Term Loan Facility" and together with the New 1L Term Loan Facility, the "New Term Loan Facilities"). The New 2L Term Loans are expected to have a maturity date of seven years from the closing date of the Offering and a fixed interest rate of 11.25% per annum. The final terms of the New 2L Term Loan Facility will be subject to the execution of definitive credit documentation and the satisfaction of customary closing conditions, including the consummation of the 1L Financing.

The Notes and the New Term Loan Facilities will be guaranteed on a joint and several basis by certain of the Company's existing and future direct or indirect wholly-owned subsidiaries, including Muvico, LLC ("Muvico"), Odeon Cinemas Group Limited ("OCGL") and certain subsidiaries of OCGL.

The Company intends to use the net proceeds from the Offering, together with the proceeds received from the New Term Loan Facilities and cash on hand, (i) to fund the Tender Offer (as defined below) of AMC's 7.500% Senior Secured Notes due 2029 (the "AMC Secured Notes"), (ii) to fund the redemption on or about February 15, 2027 of any AMC Secured Notes that are not tendered or accepted for purchase in the Tender Offer, (iii) to fund the redemption in full of Muvico's Senior Secured Notes due 2029 (the "Muvico 1.5L Notes"), (iv) to repay in full the term loans outstanding under the Credit Agreement, dated as of July 22, 2024, by and among the Company and Muvico, as borrowers, the lenders party thereto and Wilmington Savings Fund Society, FSB, as administrative agent and collateral agent (the "Existing Term Loan Facility"), (v) to repay in full the term loans outstanding under the Credit Agreement, dated as of April 17, 2026, by and among Odeon Finco PLC, as borrower, OCGL, the lenders party thereto and U.S. Bank Trust Company, National Association, as administrative agent and security agent (the "Odeon Term Loan Facility") and (vi) to pay related fees, costs, premiums and expenses.

The Notes have not been and will not be registered under the Securities Act or the securities laws of any other jurisdiction and may not be offered or sold in the United States absent registration or an applicable exemption from registration requirements.

Redemption of Muvico 1.5L Notes

In connection with the Offering, the Company expects to deliver a notice of conditional full redemption (the “Notice”) to holders of the Muvico 1.5L Notes to redeem the Muvico 1.5L Notes in full at a redemption price equal to 100.000% of the principal amount thereof plus a make-whole premium, plus accrued and unpaid interest, if any, to the applicable redemption date (the “Redemption”). The Redemption is expected to be conditioned upon the consummation of the Offering and entry into the New Term Loan Facilities and/or other debt financing transactions resulting in aggregate gross proceeds to the Company, its affiliates and its subsidiaries, of at least $3,970 million, contemporaneously with or prior to the applicable redemption date. There can be no assurances as to when and if such debt financing transactions will be completed or such conditions satisfied and the Company may waive the conditions at its discretion.

Forward-Looking Statements

This Current Report on Form 8-K includes "forward-looking statements" within the meaning of the federal securities laws, including the safe harbor provisions of the Private Securities Litigation Reform Act of 1995. In many cases, these forward-looking statements may be identified by the use of words such as "will," "may," "could," "would," "should," "believes," "expects," "anticipates," "estimates," "intends," "indicates," "projects," "goals," "objectives," "targets," "predicts," "plans," "seeks," and variations of these words and similar expressions. Examples of forward-looking statements include statements the Company makes regarding the transactions described herein, including the anticipated terms, timing and completion of the Offering and the New Term Loan Facilities and the expected use of proceeds therefrom, including the Tender Offer and the Redemption, the Preliminary Results, impacts of the industry box office in North America and European industry attendance, the Company's expected revenue, net loss, capital expenditures, diluted loss per share, Adjusted EBITDA and estimated cash and cash equivalents, the potential for sustained growth, the Company's cash generation potential, the potential for further debt equitization, the ability to achieve the Company's AMC Go Plan, the Company's financial runway and the continued box office recovery as well as the future box office outlook, including with respect to the full year 2026, changing market dynamics and capitalizing on opportunities to further strengthen AMC's balance sheet. Any forward-looking statement speaks only as of the date on which it is made. These forward-looking statements may include, among other things, statements related to AMC's current expectations regarding the performance of its business, financial results, liquidity and capital resources and are based on information available at the time the statements are made and/or management's good faith belief as of that time with respect to future events, and are subject to risks, trends, uncertainties and other facts that could cause actual performance or results to differ materially from those expressed in or suggested by the forward-looking statements. These risks, trends, uncertainties and facts include, but are not limited to: the sufficiency of AMC's existing cash and cash equivalents and available borrowing capacity; AMC's ability to obtain additional liquidity, which if not realized or insufficient to generate the material amounts of additional liquidity that will be required unless it is able to achieve more normalized levels of operating revenues, likely would result with AMC seeking an in-court or out-of-court restructuring of its liabilities; the effectiveness of the refinancing transactions completed in the third quarter of 2025 and the ability to further equitize existing debt; increased use of alternative film delivery methods or other forms of entertainment; the continued recovery of the North American and international box office; AMC's significant indebtedness, including its ability to meet its covenants and limitations on AMC's ability to take advantage of certain business opportunities imposed by such covenants; shrinking exclusive theatrical release windows; the seasonality of AMC's revenue and working capital; intense competition in the geographic areas in which AMC operates; risks relating to impairment losses, including with respect to goodwill and other intangibles, and theatre and other closure charges; motion picture production, promotion, marketing, and performance including labor stoppages affecting the production, supply and release schedule of theatrical motion picture content and choice of distributors to release fewer feature-length films as a result of the additional financial burden imposed by tariffs; the use of artificial intelligence ("AI") technology in the filmmaking process and audience acceptance of movies made utilizing AI technology; general and international economic, political, regulatory and other risks, including but not limited to rising interest rates; AMC's lack of control over distributors of films; limitations on the availability of capital, including on the authorized number of shares of the Company's Class A common stock (the "Common Stock"); dilution of voting power caused by recent sales of Common Stock and through the issuance of Common Stock underlying Muvico's exchangeable notes and the issuance of preferred stock; future offerings of debt, which would be senior to the Common Stock for purposes of distributions or upon liquidation, and which could adversely affect the market price of the Common Stock; AMC's ability to achieve expected synergies, benefits and performance from its strategic initiatives; AMC's ability to refinance its indebtedness on favorable terms; AMC's ability to optimize its theatre circuit; limitations on AMC's ability to utilize interest expense deductions annually under Section 163(j) of the Internal Revenue Code of 1986, as amended, as amended by the One Big Beautiful Bill Act of 2025; AMC's ability to recognize interest deduction carryforwards, net operating loss carryforwards, and other tax attributes to reduce future tax liability; supply chain disruptions, labor shortages, increased cost and inflation; and other factors discussed in the reports AMC has filed with the SEC. Should one or more of these risks, trends, uncertainties, or facts materialize, or should underlying assumptions prove incorrect, actual results may vary materially from those indicated or anticipated by the forward-looking statements contained herein. The Tender Offer is not conditioned upon any minimum amount of Notes being tendered. The Tender Offer may be amended, extended, terminated or withdrawn. The Company expects to pay for the Notes purchased in the Tender Offer, the fees and expenses of the Tender Offer, and the redemption price of, and accrued and unpaid interest on, any Notes not purchased in the Tender Offer, with the net proceeds of one or more debt financing transactions, including the New Notes Offering, together with cash on hand.

When considering any potential allocation of notes in the New Notes Offering, the Company intends, but is not obligated, to give some degree of preference to those investors who, prior to such allocation, have validly tendered, or have indicated to the Company or the Dealer Managers their firm intention to tender Notes in the Tender Offer. When determining allocations of the notes in the New Notes Offering, the Company intends to give some degree of preference to such investors. However, the Company will consider various factors in making allocation decisions and is not obliged to allocate any notes in the New Notes Offering to an investor who has validly tendered or indicated to the Company or the Dealer Managers a firm intention to tender any Notes it holds pursuant to the Tender Offer and if allocated, the allocated amount may be more or less than the amount tendered and accepted to purchase.

The Company has retained Wells Fargo Securities, LLC and Deutsche Bank Securities Inc. to serve as the Dealer Managers for the Tender Offer. Questions regarding the terms of the Tender Offer may be directed to Wells Fargo Securities, LLC at (704) 410-4235 (collect) or (866) 309-6316 (toll-free) or Deutsche Bank Securities Inc. at (212) 250-7527 (collect) or (855) 287-1922 (U.S. toll-free).

This press release is neither an offer to purchase nor a solicitation of an offer to sell any Notes in the Tender Offer and does not constitute a notice of redemption for the Notes. The New Notes and the guarantees in respect thereof have not been and will not be registered under the Securities Act or the securities laws of any other jurisdiction. The New Notes may not be offered in the United States absent registration or an exemption from registration. This press release does not constitute an offer to sell or the solicitation of an offer to buy any New Notes. These risks, trends, uncertainties and facts include, but are not limited to: the sufficiency of AMC’s existing cash and cash equivalents and available borrowing capacity; AMC’s ability to obtain additional liquidity, which if not realized or insufficient to generate the material amounts of additional liquidity that will be required unless it is able to achieve more normalized levels of operating revenues, likely would result with AMC seeking an in-court or out-of-court restructuring of its liabilities; the effectiveness of the refinancing transactions completed in the third quarter of 2025 and the ability to further equitize existing debt; increased use of alternative film delivery methods or other forms of entertainment; the continued recovery of the North American and international box office; AMC’s significant indebtedness, including its ability to meet its covenants and limitations on AMC's ability to take advantage of certain business opportunities imposed by such covenants; shrinking exclusive theatrical release windows; the seasonality of AMC’s revenue and working capital; intense competition in the geographic areas in which AMC operates; risks relating to impairment losses, including with respect to goodwill and other intangibles, and theatre and other closure charges; motion picture production, promotion, marketing, and performance including labor stoppages affecting the production, supply and release schedule of theatrical motion picture content and choice of distributors to release fewer feature-length films as a result of the additional financial burden imposed by tariffs; the use of artificial intelligence (“AI”) technology in the filmmaking process and audience acceptance of movies made utilizing AI technology; general and international economic, political, regulatory and other risks, including but not limited to rising interest rates; AMC’s lack of control over distributors of films; limitations on the availability of capital, including on the authorized number of AMC common stock (the “Common Stock”); dilution of voting power caused by recent sales of Common Stock and through the issuance of Common Stock underlying Muvico, LLC’s exchangeable notes and the issuance of preferred stock; future offerings of debt, which would be senior to the Common Stock for purposes of distributions or upon liquidation, and which could adversely affect the market price of the Common Stock; AMC’s ability to achieve expected synergies, benefits and performance from its strategic initiatives; AMC’s ability to refinance its indebtedness on favorable terms; AMC’s ability to optimize its theatre circuit; limitations on AMC’s ability to utilize interest expense deductions annually under Section 163(j) of the Internal Revenue Code of 1986, as amended, as amended by the One Big Beautiful Bill Act of 2025; AMC’s ability to recognize interest deduction carryforwards, net operating loss carryforwards, and other tax attributes to reduce future tax liability; supply chain disruptions, labor shortages, increased cost and inflation; and other factors discussed in the reports AMC has filed with the SEC. Should one or more of these risks, trends, uncertainties, or facts materialize, or should underlying assumptions prove incorrect, actual results may vary materially from those indicated or anticipated by the forward-looking statements contained herein. Accordingly, the Company cautions you against relying on forward-looking statements, which speak only as of the date they are made.

Forward-looking statements should not be read as a guarantee of future performance or results and will not necessarily be accurate indications of the times at, or by, which such performance or results will be achieved.
