NOTES TO CONDENSED CONSOLIDATED FINANCIAL STATEMENTS

September 30, 2026
(Unaudited)

NOTE 1—BASIS OF PRESENTATION

AMC Entertainment Holdings, Inc. ("Holdings"), through its direct and indirect subsidiaries, including American Multi-Cinema, Inc. and its subsidiaries (collectively with Holdings, unless the context otherwise requires, the "Company" or "AMC"), is principally involved in the theatrical exhibition business and owns, operates, or has interests in theatres located in the United States and Europe. The condensed consolidated financial statements include the accounts of Holdings and all subsidiaries and should be read in conjunction with the Company's Annual Report on Form 10–K for the year ended December 31, 2025. All significant intercompany balances and transactions have been eliminated in consolidation. The Company manages its business under two reportable segments for its theatrical exhibition operations, U.S. markets and International markets.

The accompanying condensed consolidated balance sheet as of December 31, 2025, which was derived from audited financial statements, and the unaudited condensed consolidated financial statements, have been prepared in accordance with accounting principles generally accepted in the United States of America for interim financial information and in accordance with the instructions to Form 10–Q. Accordingly, they do not include all of the information and footnotes required by the accounting principles generally accepted in the United States of America for complete consolidated financial statements. In the opinion of management, these interim financial statements reflect all adjustments (consisting of normal recurring adjustments) necessary for a fair presentation of the Company's financial position and results of operations. Due to the seasonal nature of the Company's business, results for the nine months ended September 30, 2026, are not necessarily indicative of the results to be expected for the year ending December 31, 2026.

The preparation of financial statements in conformity with accounting principles generally accepted in the United States of America requires management to make estimates and assumptions that affect the reported amounts of assets and liabilities and disclosure of contingent assets and liabilities at the date of the condensed consolidated financial statements and the reported amounts of revenues and expenses during the reporting period. Actual results could differ from those estimates.

Liquidity. The Company believes its existing cash and cash equivalents, together with cash generated from operations, will be sufficient to fund its operations and satisfy its obligations currently and through the next twelve months. The Company's historical cash burn rates are not sustainable long-term. Until such time as the Company is able to achieve consistent attendance and revenue levels sufficient to generate sustainable annual net positive cash flows from operating activities, it is difficult to estimate the Company's future cash burn rates and liquidity requirements. Depending on the Company's assumptions regarding the timing to achieve consistent levels of attendance and revenue sufficient to generate sustainable annual net positive cash flows from operating activities, the estimates of the required liquidity vary significantly. The Company has achieved net positive cash flows from operating activities for the nine months ended September 30, 2026.

There can be no assurance that the revenues, costs, attendance levels, and other assumptions used to estimate the Company's liquidity requirements and future cash burn rates will be correct, and the ability to be predictive is uncertain due to limited ability to predict studio film release dates, the overall production and theatrical release levels, and success of individual titles. Further, there can be no assurances that the Company will be successful in generating the additional liquidity necessary to meet the Company's obligations beyond twelve months from the issuance of these financial statements on terms acceptable to the Company or at all.

The Company expects, from time to time, to continue to seek to retire or purchase its outstanding debt through cash purchases and/or exchanges for equity or debt, in open-market purchases, privately negotiated transactions or otherwise. The Company continuously monitors the capital markets and its capital structure, and may, from time to time, seek to refinance, amend or otherwise restructure its outstanding debt on an opportunistic basis. Such repurchases, refinancings, amendments, restructurings or exchanges, if any, will be upon such terms and at such prices as it may determine, and will depend on prevailing market conditions, its liquidity requirements, the availability of authorized share capital, contractual restrictions and other factors. The amounts involved may be material and, to the extent equity is used, dilutive. See Note 5—Corporate Borrowings and Finance Lease Liabilities and Note 11—Subsequent Events for further information on debt repurchases and refinancings. Additionally, the Company has bolstered its liquidity through sales of its Class A Common Stock ("Common Stock"). See Note 6—Stockholders' Deficit for further information on these sales.

Cash and Cash Equivalents. As of September 30, 2026, cash and cash equivalents for the U.S. markets and International markets were $606.3 million and $145.6 million, respectively, and as of December 31, 2025, cash and cash equivalents for the U.S. markets and International markets were $302.6 million and $125.9 million, respectively.

Restricted Cash. Restricted cash includes cash held in the Company's bank accounts as a guarantee for certain landlords and cash collateralized letters of credit relating to the Company's insurance and utilities programs. The following table provides a reconciliation of cash and cash equivalents and restricted cash reported in the condensed consolidated balance sheets to the total of the amounts in the condensed consolidated statements of cash flows.

	As of
(In millions)	September 30, 2026	December 31, 2025
Cash and cash equivalents	$ 751.9	$ 428.5
Restricted cash	39.6	48.8
Total cash and cash equivalents and restricted cash in the statement of cash flows	$ 791.5	$ 477.3

As of September 30, 2026, restricted cash for the U.S. markets and International markets were $15.0 million and $24.6 million, respectively. As of December 31, 2025, restricted cash for the U.S. markets and International markets were $20.5 million and $28.3 million, respectively.

Investments. On February 5, 2026, the Company exercised its remaining warrants to purchase 1,000,824 common shares of Hycroft Mining Holding Corporation ("Hycroft") on a cashless basis and received 765,440 common shares of Hycroft. During the nine months ended September 30, 2026, the Company sold 700,000 common shares of Hycroft for $29.7 million. As of September 30, 2026, the Company held 129,478 remaining common shares of Hycroft. The common shares are recorded at fair value at each reporting period and unrealized gains and losses are reported in investment income. The Company recorded unrealized losses (gains) related to its investments in Hycroft in investment income of $0.6 million and $(9.3) million during the three months ended September 30, 2026 and September 30, 2025, respectively. The Company recorded realized and unrealized (gains) related to its investments in Hycroft in investment income of $(15.9) million and $(11.8) million during the nine months ended September 30, 2026 and September 30, 2025, respectively.

During the three and nine months ended September 30, 2025, the Company recorded an impairment charge of $10.3 million in investment income related to an equity security without a readily determinable fair value measured at cost less any impairments. The investment has no remaining carrying value.

Related Party Transactions. The Company conducts business with certain of its equity method investees in the ordinary course of business. Transactions primarily relate to advertising revenue and film exhibition costs for film rent. The table below summarizes the related party advertising revenues and film exhibition costs for the three and nine months ended September 30, 2026 and September 30, 2025, respectively:

Additionally in May 2026, the Company issued 142,102,295 shares of Common Stock to settle the Exchange of its New Exchangeable Notes. See Note 5—Corporate Borrowings and Finance Lease Liabilities for further information.

In December 2024, the Company entered into forward sales to sell 30,000,000 shares of Common Stock in the aggregate. The shares underlying the forward sales were issued in December 2024. The Company evaluated the forwards under ASC 815—Derivatives and Hedging and concluded that the transactions consist of a subscription receivable accounted for under ASC 505-10-45-2 reflecting the Company's right to receive prepayments and to deliver shares to the forward counterparty. Accordingly, pursuant to Regulation S-X Rule 5-02.29, the Company recorded the prepayment as an increase to additional paid-in capital with an equal and offsetting subscription receivable as a decrease to additional paid-in capital. The subscription receivable was considered a debt-like host and the Company's right to receive additional cash consideration up to a cap price based on the movement of the share price during a valuation period is an embedded feature that meets the definition of a derivative that meets the equity classification scope exception in ASC 815-40 and is not accounted for outside of equity.

In January 2025, the Company was paid $108.7 million for prepayments in respect of the forwards. The Company reduced the subscription receivable which resulted in an increase in total additional paid–in capital. The valuation period ended on March 17, 2025 with no additional consideration owed to the Company.

Stock-Based Compensation

Equity Incentive Plans

On June 5, 2024, the Company's shareholders approved a new equity incentive plan ("2024 EIP"). Awards that may be granted under the 2024 EIP include options, stock appreciation rights, restricted stock awards, restricted stock units ("RSUs"), performance stock units ("PSUs"), cash awards, and other equity-based awards. The 2024 EIP will be unlimited in duration and, in the event of termination, will remain in effect as long as any shares of awards under it are outstanding and not fully vested. On September 24, 2026, the Company's shareholders voted to approve an amendment to the 2024 EIP to increase the total number of shares of Common Stock subject to the 2024 EIP from 25.0 million shares to 50.0 million shares.

Awards Granted

The compensation committee of AMC's board of directors ("Compensation Committee") has granted awards of stock, RSUs, and PSUs to certain of the Company's employees and directors under the 2024 EIP. Each RSU or PSU is convertible into one share of Common Stock upon vesting.

Each RSU and PSU held by a participant as of a dividend record date is entitled to a dividend equivalent equal to the amount paid with respect to one share of Common Stock underlying the unit. Any such accrued dividend equivalents are paid to the holder only upon vesting of the units. The grant date fair value of the awards is based on the closing share price of the Company's Common Stock on such grant date.

The awards granted under the Company's equity incentive plan generally have the following features:

- Board of Directors Stock Awards: On February 19, 2026, the Company granted 869,571 fully vested shares of Common Stock to the independent members of the Company's board of directors with a grant date fair value of $1.1 million.

- Restricted Stock Unit Awards: Each vested RSU will be settled by delivery of a single share of the Company's Common Stock and therefore is accounted for as an equity instrument. Awards are settled as each individual tranche vests under the relevant agreements. The Company records stock-based compensation expense on a straight-line recognition method over the requisite service period. The RSUs vest over three years, with one-third vesting each year. These RSUs will be settled within 30 days of vesting.

- Performance Stock Unit Awards: Each vested PSU will be settled by delivery of a single share of the Company's Common Stock and therefore is accounted for as an equity instrument. The total PSUs are divided into three separate year tranches, with each tranche allocated to a fiscal year within the performance period ("Tranche Year"). The PSUs within each Tranche Year are further divided between four performance targets: the Adjusted EBITDA performance target, the free cash flow performance target, a target based upon various strategic initiatives for the chief executive officer, and a performance target based upon various strategic initiatives for the chief financial officer. The Adjusted EBITDA and free cash flow PSU awards will vest if 80% to 120% of the performance targets are attained, with the corresponding vested unit amount ranging from 50% to 200% of the PSUs awarded. The 2026 Tranche Year strategic initiative based awards for the chief executive officer will vest if four to ten strategic initiatives are achieved by the end of the 2026 Tranche Year, with the corresponding vested unit amounts ranging from 50% to 200% of the PSUs awarded. The 2026 Tranche Year strategic initiative based awards for the chief financial officer will vest if two to four strategic initiatives are achieved by the end of the 2026 Tranche Year, with corresponding vested unit amounts ranging from 80% to 200% of the PSUs awarded. The PSUs will be settled within 30 days of vesting.

The Compensation Committee establishes the annual performance targets at the beginning of each year. Therefore, in accordance with ASC 718, Compensation - Stock Compensation, the grant date (and fair value measurement date) for each Tranche Year is the date at the beginning of each year when a mutual understanding of the key terms and conditions is reached.

- Retirement Clauses. The 2025 and 2026 RSUs and PSUs contain clauses that allow grantees to continue to vest in the ordinary course if the grantee has terminated service for any reason other than for cause, provided that the grantee attained the age of 65 and has rendered 10 years of service. Any unvested RSUs shall continue to vest as if the grantee's service continued through the vesting date. Any unvested PSUs allocated to the Tranche Year in which the service terminates shall continue to vest as if the grantee's service continued through the vesting date, subject to attainment of the applicable performance targets. Unvested PSUs allocated to future Tranche Years will be forfeited. Awards granted to grantees who have met the qualifications for retirement have no substantive service requirement, therefore the compensation cost associated with these awards is recognized immediately.

The 2026 awards made in February 2026 were contingent on obtaining shareholder approval to add 25.0 million shares to the 2024 EIP. Therefore, in accordance with ASC 718, Compensation - Stock Compensation, the awards did not have a grant date until September 24, 2026, when the necessary approval was obtained.

Special Awards

On February 19, 2026, the Compensation Committee approved modification of the performance goals applicable to the 2025 Tranche Year Adjusted EBITDA and free cash flow PSU awards. This was accounted for as a modification to the 2025 Tranche Year PSU awards which lowered the Adjusted EBITDA and free cash flow performance targets such that 200% vesting was achieved. This modification resulted in the immediate vesting of an additional 3,778,642 2025 Tranche Year PSUs. This was treated as a Type 3 modification (improbable-to-probable) which required the Company to recognize additional stock compensation expense based on the modification date fair values of the incremental PSUs. During the nine months ended September 30, 2026, the Company recognized $4.6 million of stock compensation expense related to these awards.

On February 19, 2025, the Compensation Committee approved modification of the performance goals applicable to all 2024 Tranche Year PSU awards. This was accounted for as a modification to the 2024 Tranche Year PSU awards which lowered the Adjusted EBITDA performance target such that 146% vesting was achieved. This modification resulted in the immediate vesting of an additional 270,093 of the 2024 Tranche Year PSUs (4,181 cash settled units and 265,912 equity settled units). This was treated as a Type 3 modification (improbable-to-probable) which required the Company to recognize additional stock compensation expense based on the modification date fair values of the incremental PSUs. During the nine months ended September 30, 2025, the Company recognized $1.0 million of stock compensation expense related to these awards.

Stock-Based Compensation Expense

The following table presents the stock-based compensation expense recorded within general and administrative: other:

(In millions)	Three Months Ended		Nine Months Ended
	September 30, 2026	September 30, 2025	September 30, 2026	September 30, 2025
Special awards expense	$ —	$ —	$ 4.6	$ 1.0
Board of director stock award expense	—	—	1.1	1.3
Restricted stock unit expense	11.0	3.6	13.9	9.8
Performance stock unit expense	9.7	2.4	11.7	5.6
Total stock-based compensation expense	$ 20.7	$ 6.0	$ 31.3	$ 17.7

As noted above, certain awards have no substantive service requirement and were therefore expensed immediately. This, together with the increase in the share price of Common Stock from the date the Compensation Committee determined the award size on February 19, 2026 to the accounting grant date on September 24, 2026 resulted in an increase in stock compensation expense for the three and nine months ended September 30, 2026 compared with the corresponding periods in 2025.

As of September 30, 2026, the estimated remaining unrecognized compensation cost related to stock-based compensation grants was approximately $33.4 million, which reflects assumptions related to attainment of performance targets based on the scales as described above. The weighted average period over which this remaining compensation expense is expected to be recognized is approximately ten months. The Company accounts for forfeitures when they occur.

Nonvested Awards

The following table represents the equity classified nonvested RSU and PSU activity for the nine months ended September 30, 2026:

Total nonvested at September 30, 2026	11,741,684		19,064,821

(1) The number of PSUs granted under the 2026 Tranche Year assumes the Company will vest at 200% for the Adjusted EBITDA performance target, 200% for the free cash flow performance target, 100% for the chief executive officer strategic initiatives performance target, and 200% for the chief financial officer strategic initiatives performance target.

(2) Represents vested RSUs and PSUs surrendered in lieu of taxes. As a result, the Company paid taxes for restricted unit withholdings of approximately $3.7 million during the nine months ended September 30, 2026.

(3) Assumes PSUs will vest at 100% of targets.

NOTE 7—INCOME TAXES

The Company's worldwide effective income tax rate is based on actual income (loss), statutory rates, valuation allowances against deferred tax assets and tax planning opportunities available in the various jurisdictions in which it operates. The Company intends to compute quarterly tax expense based on an annual effective rate in future interim periods when more reliable estimates of annual income become available. The Company recognizes income tax-related interest expense and penalties as income tax expense and general and administrative expense, respectively.

The Company evaluates its deferred tax assets each period to determine if a valuation allowance is required based on whether it is "more likely than not" that some portion of the deferred tax assets would not be realized. The ultimate realization of these deferred tax assets is dependent upon the generation of sufficient taxable income during future periods on a federal, state, and foreign jurisdiction basis. The Company conducts its evaluation by considering all available positive and negative evidence, including historical operating results, forecasts of future profitability, the duration of statutory carryforward periods, and the outlooks for the U.S. motion picture and broader economy, among others.

A valuation allowance is recorded against the Company's U.S. deferred tax assets and most of the Company's international deferred tax assets as the Company has determined the realization of these assets does not meet the more likely than not criteria.

The effective tax rate for the nine months ended September 30, 2026, reflects the impact of these valuation allowances against U.S. and international deferred tax assets generated during the period. The actual effective rate for the nine months ended September 30, 2026, was (368.3)%. The Company's consolidated tax rate for the nine months ended September 30, 2026, differs from the U.S. statutory tax rate primarily due to the valuation allowances in U.S. and foreign jurisdictions, foreign tax rate differences, federal and state tax credits, permanent differences and other discrete items.

Our ability to utilize certain tax attributes may be subject to an annual limitation under Section 382 of the Internal Revenue Code. Although this limitation could restrict the amount of such attributes available to offset taxable income in a particular year, the attributes have an indefinite carryforward period and therefore are not expected to expire unused solely as a result of the limitation.

NOTE 8—FAIR VALUE MEASUREMENTS

Fair value refers to the price that would be received to sell an asset or paid to transfer a liability in an orderly transaction between market participants in the market in which the entity transacts business. The inputs used to develop these fair value measurements are established in a hierarchy, which ranks the quality and reliability of the information used to determine the fair values. The fair value classification is based on levels of inputs. Assets and liabilities that are carried at fair value are classified and disclosed in one of the following categories:

Level 1:	Quoted market prices in active markets for identical assets or liabilities.
Level 2:	Observable market-based inputs or unobservable inputs that are corroborated by market data.
Level 3:	Unobservable inputs that are not corroborated by market data.

Recurring Fair Value Measurements. The following table summarizes the Company's financial instruments carried at fair value on a recurring basis as of September 30, 2026:

		Fair Value Measurements at September 30, 2026 Using
(In millions)	Total Carrying Value at September 30, 2026	Quoted prices in active market (Level 1)	Significant other observable inputs (Level 2)	Significant unobservable inputs (Level 3)
Corporate Borrowings:

6.00%/8.00% Cash/PIK Toggle Senior Secured Exchangeable Notes due 2030 embedded derivative. The Existing Exchangeable Notes have conversion features that required bifurcation from their respective host instruments pursuant to ASC 815—Derivatives and Hedging. The conversion features embedded within the notes were combined into a derivative that comprises all features requiring bifurcation. The embedded derivative has been valued using binomial lattice models. The binomial lattice models consist of simulated Common Stock prices from the valuation date to the maturity of the notes. The significant inputs used to value the derivative include the share price of the Common Stock, the volatility of the share price, time to maturity, risk-free interest rate, credit spread, and discount yield. The Company measures the derivative at fair value at the end of each reporting period with any changes in fair value recorded to other expense in the condensed consolidated statements of operations.

Non-recurring Fair Value Measurements. The following table summarizes the fair value hierarchy of the bifurcated embedded derivative of the Senior Secured Exchangeable Notes due 2030 as of May 4, 2026:

		Fair Value Measurements at May 4, 2026 Using
(In millions)	Total Carrying Value at May 4, 2026	Quoted prices in active market (Level 1)	Significant other observable inputs (Level 2)	Significant unobservable inputs (Level 3)
Corporate Borrowings:
Bifurcated embedded derivative - Senior Secured Exchangeable Notes due 2030	$ 103.5	$ —	$ 103.5	$ —

Senior Secured Exchangeable Notes due 2030 embedded derivative valuation technique. The embedded derivative was valued by determining the as-converted value of the New Exchangeable Notes and then subtracting the estimated fair value of the New Exchangeable Notes without the conversion feature. The as-converted value of the New Exchangeable Notes was calculated from the number of shares expected to be exchanged multiplied by the closing price of the Common Stock as of May 4, 2026. The estimated fair value of the New Exchangeable Notes without the conversion feature was determined using a discounted cash flow method using a discount yield derived from the risk-free rate and an interpolated credit spread.

Other Fair Value Measurement Disclosures. The Company is required to disclose the fair value of financial instruments that are not recognized at fair value in the statement of financial position for which it is practicable to estimate that value:

		Fair Value Measurements at September 30, 2026 Using
(In millions)	Total Carrying Value at September 30, 2026	Quoted prices in active market (Level 1)	Significant other observable inputs (Level 2)	Significant unobservable inputs (Level 3)
Current maturities of corporate borrowings	$ 24.0	$ —	$ 24.1	$ —
Corporate borrowings (excluding derivatives)	3,701.7	—	3,892.9	—

Valuation Technique. Quoted market prices and observable market-based inputs were used to estimate fair value for Level 2 inputs. The Company valued these notes at principal value plus an estimated premium or less an estimated discount, reflecting a market yield to maturity. See Note 5—Corporate Borrowings and Finance Lease Liabilities for further information.

The carrying amounts of cash and cash equivalents, accounts receivable, accounts payable, and accrued liabilities approximate fair value because of the short maturity of these instruments.

NOTE 9—SEGMENT REPORTING

The Company reports information about operating segments in accordance with ASC 280-10, Segment Reporting, which requires financial information to be reported based on the way management organizes segments within a company for making operating decisions and evaluating performance. Management has organized the Company around differences in geographic areas. The Company has identified two reportable segments for its theatrical exhibition operations, U.S. markets and International markets. The International markets reportable segment has operations in, or partial interest, in theatres in the United Kingdom, Germany, Spain, Italy, Ireland, Portugal, Sweden, Finland, Norway, and Denmark.

The measure of segment profit and loss the Company's chief operating decision maker uses to evaluate performance and allocate resources is Adjusted EBITDA. The Company defines Adjusted EBITDA as net earnings (loss) plus (i) income tax provision (benefit), (ii) interest expense and (iii) depreciation and amortization, as further adjusted to eliminate the impact of certain items that the Company does not consider indicative of the Company's ongoing operating performance and to include attributable EBITDA from equity investments in theatre operations in International markets. The Company does not report asset information by segment because that information is not used to evaluate the performance of or allocate resources between segments.

During the first quarter of 2026, the Company changed its definition of Adjusted EBITDA to adjust for net periodic pension cost. Net periodic pension cost is a recurring expense that includes several components such as service cost, interest cost, expected return on plan assets, amortization of prior service cost, and amortization of actuarial gains/losses. Additionally, the Company also includes infrequent gains and losses from benefit curtailments and settlements of pension obligations in net periodic pension cost. The Company no longer believes that net periodic pension cost should be included in Adjusted EBITDA as the pension plans are frozen, service cost is zero, and the remaining components are not indicative of ongoing operating performance as they are not driven by current operating decisions and largely depend on actuarial assumptions. While not the basis for this change, the revised definition further aligns the Company's definition of Adjusted EBITDA with the definition used in the Company's debt agreements. The adjustment for net periodic pension cost is included in the caption titled "other expense" in the condensed consolidated statement of operations and in the reconciliation of net earnings (loss) to Adjusted EBITDA further below. See the components of other expense table in Note 1—Basis of Presentation for net periodic pension cost recorded in each period presented. All comparative period information for Adjusted EBITDA has been re-cast to conform with the current definition. The impact of this change on previously reported Adjusted EBITDA for the three and nine months ended September 30, 2025 was an improvement of $0.3 million and $0.9 million, respectively.

(2) Amounts represent preopening expense related to temporarily closed screens under renovation, theatre and other closure expense for the permanent closure of screens, gains or losses from the disposition of assets, and other non-operating gains or losses included in operating expenses. The Company has excluded these items as they are non-cash in nature or related to theatres that are not open.

(3) Equity in earnings of non-consolidated entities during the three months ended September 30, 2026 primarily consisted of equity in earnings from AC JV, LLC ("AC JV") of $(1.2) million. (4) Attributable EBITDA includes the EBITDA from equity investments in theatre operators in certain International markets. See below for a reconciliation of the Company's equity in (earnings) of non-consolidated entities to attributable EBITDA. Because these equity investments are in theatre operators in regions where the Company holds a significant market share, the Company believes attributable EBITDA is more indicative of the performance of these equity investments and management uses this measure to monitor and evaluate these equity investments.

NOTE 10—EARNINGS (LOSS) PER SHARE

Basic earnings (loss) per share is computed by dividing net earnings (loss) by the weighted-average number of common shares outstanding. Diluted earnings (loss) per share includes the effects of unvested RSUs with a service condition only, unvested contingently issuable PSUs that have service and performance conditions, and shares issuable upon exchange of the Existing Exchangeable Notes, if dilutive. Diluted earnings (loss) per share is computed using the treasury stock method for the RSUs and PSUs and the if-converted method for the Existing Exchangeable Notes.

The following table sets forth the computation of basic and diluted earnings (loss) per common share:

	Three Months Ended		Nine Months Ended
(In millions)	September 30, 2026	September 30, 2025	September 30, 2026	September 30, 2025
Numerator:
Net earnings (loss) for basic and diluted earnings (loss) per share	$ 109.3	$ (298.2)	$ (19.2)	$ (505.0)
Denominator (shares in thousands):
Weighted average shares for basic earnings (loss) per common share	893,620	513,010	719,730	459,375
Common equivalent shares for RSUs and PSUs	3,014	—	—	—
Weighted average shares for diluted earnings (loss) per common share	896,634	513,010	719,730	459,375
Basic earnings (loss) per common share	$ 0.12	$ (0.58)	$ (0.03)	$ (1.10)
Diluted earnings (loss) per common share	$ 0.12	$ (0.58)	$ (0.03)	$ (1.10)

Vested RSUs and PSUs have dividend rights identical to the Company's Common Stock and are treated as outstanding shares for purposes of computing basic and diluted earnings (loss) per share.

Included in the computation of basic earnings (loss) per share are 4,043,321 contingently issuable RSUs whose issuance conditions were satisfied when the grantee attained retirement eligibility. These contingently issuable RSUs will not be issued until their vesting dates. These RSUs also are considered participating securities pursuant to ASC 260—Earnings Per Share. Application of the two-class method for computing both basic and diluted earnings (loss) per share results in the same earnings (loss) per share as the amounts presented in the table above. For the nine months ended September 30, 2026, 11,741,684 unvested RSUs were excluded from the computation of diluted loss per share as their effect would have been anti-dilutive. For both the three and nine months ended September 30, 2025, 4,494,025 unvested RSUs were excluded from the computation of diluted loss per share as their effect would have been anti-dilutive.

Unvested PSUs are subject to performance conditions and are included in diluted earnings (loss) per share, if dilutive, based on the number of shares, if any, that would be issuable under the terms of the award agreements if the end of the reporting period were the end of the contingency period. For the nine months ended September 30, 2026, 10,621,187 unvested PSUs at certain performance targets were excluded from the computation of diluted loss per share as they would not be issuable if the end of the reporting period were the end of the contingency period or as their effect would have been anti-dilutive. For both the three and nine months ended September 30, 2025, 2,201,477 unvested PSUs at certain performance targets were excluded from the computation of diluted loss per share as they would not be issuable if the end of the reporting period were the end of the contingency period or as their effect would have been anti-dilutive.

The Company excluded approximately 23.2 million shares issuable upon exchange of the Existing Exchangeable Notes from the computation of diluted loss per share for both the three and nine months ended September 30, 2026 as their effect would have been anti-dilutive. The Company excluded approximately 21.4 million shares issuable upon exchange of the Existing Exchangeable Notes from the computation of diluted loss per share for both the three and nine months ended September 30, 2025 as their effect would have been anti-dilutive.

2031 Notes Indenture

Interest, Guarantees and Security

The 2031 Notes will bear interest at a rate of 8.875% per annum, payable semi-annually in arrears in cash on April 15 and October 15 of each year, beginning on April 15, 2027. The 2031 Notes will mature on October 15, 2031, unless redeemed in full prior to such maturity date, pursuant to the terms contained in the 2031 Notes Indenture.

The Company's obligations under the 2031 Notes are fully and unconditionally guaranteed on a joint and several basis by the Company's existing and future direct or indirect wholly-owned subsidiaries that guarantee the New Term Loan Facilities.

The 2031 Notes are secured on a first-priority basis, on a pari passu basis with the New 1L Term Loan Facility, by substantially all tangible and intangible assets owned by the Company and the guarantors, including equity interests in subsidiaries, subject to agreed security principles, the applicable intercreditor agreements, thresholds, exceptions and permitted liens. The 2031 Notes (i) rank equal in right of payment with all existing and future senior indebtedness of the Company and the guarantors, including under the New Term Loan Facilities and the Existing Exchangeable Notes; (ii) rank senior in right of payment to any future subordinated indebtedness of the Company and the guarantors; (iii) are secured on a first-priority basis, equally and ratably with the New 1L Term Loan Facility (with respect to all collateral) and the Existing Exchangeable Notes (with respect to the AMC Collateral (as defined below)); (iv) are effectively senior to any junior-lien indebtedness of the Company and the guarantors, including under the New 2L Term Loan Facility (with respect to all collateral), and the Existing Exchangeable Notes (with respect to the Centertainment Collateral (as defined below)), in each case to the extent of the value of the collateral; (v) rank effectively senior to any existing and future unsecured indebtedness of the Company and the guarantors, to the extent of the value of the collateral; (vi) are structurally subordinated to existing and future indebtedness of the Company and the guarantors that is secured by assets or properties not constituting collateral securing the 2031 Notes, to the extent of the value of the collateral; and (vii) are structurally subordinated to the indebtedness of any of the Company's subsidiaries that do not guarantee the 2031 Notes.

Covenants and Events of Default

The 2031 Notes Indenture contains covenants that limit the ability of the Company and its subsidiaries to, among other things: (i) incur additional indebtedness or issue certain preferred shares; (ii) create liens; (iii) declare or pay dividends, redeem stock or make other distributions to stockholders or make other restricted payments; (iv) make payments on junior financing; (v) make investments; (vi) sell or transfer certain assets; (vii) consolidate, merge, sell or otherwise dispose of all or substantially all of their respective assets; and (viii) enter into transactions with affiliates. These covenants are subject to a number of important limitations and exceptions. The 2031 Notes Indenture also provides for customary events of default, which, if any of them occur, would permit or require the principal, premium, if any, interest and any other monetary obligations on all the then outstanding 2031 Notes to be due and payable immediately.

The 2031 Notes were offered and sold in a private offering exempt from the registration requirements of the Securities Act of 1933, as amended (the "Securities Act").

New Term Loan Facilities

Interest, Amortization, Guarantees and Security

The New 1L Term Loan Credit Agreement provides for the New 1L Term Loans in an initial aggregate principal amount of $850.0 million, which mature on October 5, 2031. The New 1L Term Loans were issued with an original issue discount of 1.50%, bear interest at (i) at the Company's election, either the Alternate Base Rate (as defined in the New 1L Term Loan Credit Agreement) or Adjusted Term SOFR (as defined in the New 1L Term Loan Credit Agreement) for the applicable interest period plus (ii) the Applicable Rate (as defined in the New 1L Term Loan Credit Agreement) and are subject to amortization of principal, payable in quarterly installments on the last business day of each March, June, September and December (commencing March 31, 2027), equal to 0.25% of the original principal amount of the New 1L Term Loans. The remaining aggregate principal amount outstanding (together with accrued and unpaid interest on the principal amount) of the New 1L Term Loans is payable at maturity.

The New 2L Term Loan Credit Agreement provides for the New 2L Term Loans in an initial aggregate principal amount of $1,120.0 million, which mature on October 5, 2033. The New 2L Term Loans were issued with an original issue discount of 1.00% and bear interest at a fixed 11.25% interest rate.

The New Term Loans are fully and unconditionally guaranteed by certain of the Company's existing and future direct or indirect wholly-owned subsidiaries. The New 1L Term Loans are secured on a first-priority basis, on a pari passu basis with the 2031 Notes, and the New 2L Term Loans are secured on a second-priority basis with respect to the 2031 Notes and the New 1L Term Loans, in each case by substantially the same collateral that secures the 2031 Notes, subject to agreed security principles, thresholds, exceptions and permitted liens.

Covenants and Events of Default

Each of the New 1L Term Loan Credit Agreement and the New 2L Term Loan Credit Agreement contains covenants that limit the ability of the Company and its subsidiaries to, among other things, (i) incur additional indebtedness or issue certain preferred shares; (ii) create liens; (iii) declare or pay dividends, redeem stock or make other distributions to stockholders or make other restricted payments; (iv) make payments on junior financing; (v) make investments; (vi) sell or transfer certain assets; (vii) enter into transactions with affiliates; and (viii) consolidate, merge, liquidate or dissolve. These covenants are subject to a number of important limitations and exceptions. Each such credit agreement also provides for events of default, which, if any of them occur, would permit or require the principal, premium, if any, interest and any other monetary obligations on all of the then outstanding New Term Loans under the applicable facility to become immediately due and payable.

Intercreditor Agreements

In connection with the issuance of the 2031 Notes and the incurrence of the New 1L Term Loans and New 2L Term Loans, on the 2026 Transactions Closing Date, the Company and certain of its subsidiaries entered into:

- AMC First Lien/Second Lien Intercreditor Agreement to govern the relative priorities of the security interests of the New 1L Term Loans, the 2031 Notes, and the Existing Exchangeable Notes, as first lien obligations, and the New 2L Term Loans, as second lien obligations, on the AMC Collateral.

Forward-Looking Statements

In addition to historical information, this Quarterly Report on Form 10–Q contains "forward-looking statements" within the meaning of the "safe harbor" provisions of the United States Private Securities Litigation Reform Act of 1995. Forward-looking statements may be identified by the use of words such as "may," "will," "forecast," "estimate," "project," "intend," "plan," "expect," "should," "believe" and other similar expressions that predict or indicate future events or trends or that are not statements of historical matters. These forward-looking statements are based only on our current beliefs, expectations and assumptions regarding the future of our business, future plans and strategies, projections, anticipated events and trends, the economy and other future conditions and speak only as of the date on which it is made. Examples of forward-looking statements include statements we make regarding future attendance levels, revenues and our liquidity. These forward-looking statements involve known and unknown risks, uncertainties, assumptions and other factors, including those discussed in "Risk Factors" and "Management's Discussion and Analysis of Financial Condition and Results of Operations," which may cause our actual results, performance or achievements to be materially different from any future results, performance or achievements expressed or implied by such forward-looking statements. These risks and uncertainties include, but are not limited to, the following:

- the risks and uncertainties relating to the sufficiency of our existing cash and cash equivalents and available borrowing capacity to fund operations and satisfy obligations including cash outflows for planned capital expenditures currently and through the next twelve months. There remain significant risks that may negatively impact revenues, costs, and attendance levels, including changes to movie studios release schedules (including as a result of production delays and delays to the release of movies caused by labor stoppages) and direct to streaming or other changing movie studio practices. If we are unable to achieve consistent levels of attendance and revenues sufficient to generate sustainable annual net positive cash flows from operating activities, we may be required to obtain additional liquidity. If such additional liquidity is not obtained or is insufficient, we likely would seek an in-court or out-of-court restructuring of our liabilities, and in the event of such future liquidation or bankruptcy proceeding, holders of our Common Stock and other securities would likely suffer a total loss of their investment;

- the risks and uncertainties relating to refinancing transactions, including, but not limited to, (i) the potential for additional future dilution of our Common Stock as a result of issuance of shares underlying the Existing Exchangeable Notes or other convertible or exchangeable debt we may issue as part of a refinancing transaction, (ii) the impact on the market price of our Common Stock and our capital structure of any litigation or claims of default that might arise in connection with refinancing transactions, (iii) the possibility that the extension of certain debt maturities effected thereby will not provide sufficient time to generate sustainable annual net positive cash flows sufficient to service and repay our indebtedness, (iv) our ability to service our indebtedness incurred in connection therewith, and (v) the restrictive covenants and other limitations contained in the indentures and credit agreements governing such indebtedness that may limit our operational and financial flexibility;

- changing practices of distributors, including increased use of alternative film delivery methods including streaming platforms and premium video on demand, shrinking exclusive theatrical release windows or release of movies to theatrical exhibition and streaming platforms on the same date, the theatrical release of fewer movies due to industry consolidation or other reasons, or transitioning to other forms of entertainment;
- the impact of changing movie-going behavior of consumers;
- the risk that the North American and international box office will not achieve sustained recovery, resulting in continued cash burn and the need to seek additional financing, which may not be available at favorable terms, or at all;
- risks and uncertainties relating to our significant indebtedness, including our borrowings and our ability to meet our debt covenants;
- the dilution caused by recent and potential future sales of our Common Stock and future potential share issuances to repay, refinance, redeem or repurchase indebtedness (including expenses, accrued interest and premium, if any);
- risks relating to motion picture production, promotion, marketing, and performance, including labor stoppages affecting the production, supply and release schedule of theatrical motion picture content and choice of distributors to release fewer feature-length films as a result of the additional financial burden imposed by tariffs on motion picture production;
- the potential impact on our business resulting from consolidation among, or structural changes to, movie studios, distribution companies, or producers of other third-party media, including the uncertainty created when any such transaction is the subject of pending regulatory review, judicial proceedings, or injunctive relief, the outcome of which may materially affect the structure and dynamics of the markets in which we operate and the production and release of theatrical motion pictures;
- the use of artificial intelligence ("AI") technology in the filmmaking process and audience acceptance of movies made utilizing AI technology;
- the seasonality of our revenue and working capital, which are dependent upon the timing of motion picture releases by distributors, such releases being seasonal and resulting in higher attendance and revenues generally during the summer months and holiday seasons, and higher working capital requirements during the other periods such as the first quarter;
- intense competition in the geographic areas in which we operate among exhibitors, streaming platforms, or from other forms of entertainment;
- certain covenants in the agreements that govern our indebtedness that limit or restrict our ability to take advantage of certain business opportunities, pay dividends, incur additional debt, pre-pay debt, and also to refinance debt and to do so at favorable terms, and such covenants that impose additional administrative and operational burdens on our business;
- risks relating to impairment losses, including with respect to goodwill and other intangibles, and theatre and other closure charges;
- general and international economic, political, regulatory, social and financial market conditions, including potential economic recession, inflation, rising interest rates, the financial stability of the banking industry, and other risks that may negatively impact discretionary income and our revenues and attendance levels;
- our lack of control over distributors of films;
- limitations on the availability of capital or poor financial results may prevent us from deploying strategic initiatives;

- an issuance of preferred stock could dilute the voting power of the common stockholders and adversely affect the market value of our outstanding Common Stock;
- limitations on the authorized number of Common Stock shares could in the future prevent us from raising additional capital through sales of Common Stock;
- our ability to achieve expected synergies, benefits and performance from our strategic initiatives;
- our ability to refinance our indebtedness on terms favorable to us or at all;
- our ability to optimize our theatre circuit through new construction, the transformation of our existing theatres, and strategically closing underperforming theatres may be subject to delay and unanticipated costs;
- failures, unavailability or security breaches of our information systems, including due to cybersecurity incidents;
- our ability to utilize interest expense deductions will be limited annually due to Section 163(j) of the Internal Revenue Code of 1986, as amended, as amended by the One Big Beautiful Bill Act of 2025;
- our ability to recognize interest deduction carryforwards, net operating loss carryforwards and other tax attributes to reduce our future tax liability;
- our ability to recognize certain international deferred tax assets which currently do not have a valuation allowance recorded;
- review by antitrust authorities in connection with acquisition opportunities;
- risks relating to the incurrence of legal liability;
- dependence on key personnel for current and future performance and our ability to attract and retain senior executives and other key personnel, including in connection with any future acquisitions;
- increased costs in order to comply or resulting from a failure to comply with governmental regulation, including the General Data Protection Regulation and all other current and pending privacy and data regulations in the jurisdictions where we have operations;
- supply chain disruptions may negatively impact our operating results;
- the availability and/or cost of energy;
- the market price and trading volume of our shares of Common Stock has been and may continue to be volatile, and purchasers of our securities could incur substantial losses;
- future offerings of debt, which would be senior to our Common Stock for purposes of distributions or upon liquidation, could adversely affect the market price of our Common Stock;
- the potential for political, social, or economic unrest, terrorism, hostilities, cyber-attacks or war, including the conflict between Russia and Ukraine, military actions in and around Iran, and other international conflicts;
- the potential impact of financial and economic sanctions on the regional and global economy, or widespread health emergencies, such as pandemics or epidemics, causing people to avoid our theatres or other public places where large crowds are in attendance;

- anti-takeover protections in our Fourth Amended and Restated Certificate of Incorporation and our Fourth Amended and Restated Bylaws may discourage or prevent a takeover of our Company, even if an acquisition would be beneficial to our stockholders; and

- other risks and uncertainties referenced from time to time in filings with the Securities and Exchange Commission ("SEC").

This list of factors that may affect future performance and the accuracy of forward-looking statements is illustrative but not exhaustive. In addition, new risks and uncertainties may arise from time to time. Accordingly, all forward-looking statements should be evaluated with an understanding of their inherent uncertainty and we caution accordingly against relying on forward-looking statements.

Overview

AMC is the world's largest theatrical exhibition company and an industry leader in innovation and operational excellence. As of September 30, 2026, we operated theatres in 11 countries, including the United States, and various countries throughout Europe.

Our theatrical exhibition revenues are generated primarily from box office admissions and food and beverage sales. The balance of our revenues is generated from ancillary sources, including ticketing fees, on-screen advertising, income from gift card and exchange ticket sales, rental of theatre auditoriums, retail popcorn and merchandise sales, fees earned from our customer loyalty programs, and theatrical distribution. As of September 30, 2026, we owned, operated or had interests in 840 theatres and 9,472 screens.

Box Office Admissions and Film Content

Box office admissions are our largest source of revenue. We predominantly license theatrical films from distributors owned by major film production companies and from independent distributors on a film-by-film and theatre-by-theatre basis. Film exhibition costs are based on a share of admissions revenues and are accrued based on estimates of the final settlement pursuant to our film licenses. These licenses typically state that rental fees are based on the box office performance of each film, though in certain circumstances and less frequently, our rental fees are based on a mutually agreed settlement rate that is fixed. In some European territories, film rental fees are established on a weekly basis and some licenses use a per capita agreement instead of a revenue share, paying a flat amount per ticket.

Our revenues attributable to individual distributors may vary significantly from year to year depending upon the commercial success of each distributor's films in any given year. Our results of operations may vary significantly from quarter to quarter and from year to year based on the timing and popularity of film releases.

There have been no material changes to our critical accounting policies or the methodology used in developing related estimates during the three or nine months ended September 30, 2026.

Significant Events—For the Nine Months Ended September 30, 2026

2026 Refinancing Transactions. On October 5, 2026, we completed the 2026 Refinancing Transactions, which included issuing $2,000.0 million aggregate principal amount of 8.875% first lien notes, $850.0 million aggregate principal amount of first lien term loans, $1,120.0 million aggregate principal amount of second lien term loans and the repayment, redemption and discharge of certain existing indebtedness. See Note 11—Subsequent Events for further information regarding the 2026 Refinancing Transactions in the Notes to the Condensed Consolidated Financial Statements under Part I, Item 1 of this Form 10-Q and the Liquidity and Capital Resources section of Management's Discussion and Analysis of Financial Condition and Results of Operations for further information.

2027 Senior Subordinated Notes Redemption. On July 24, 2026, we used proceeds from the Offering to fully redeem $125.5 million aggregate principal amount of the Senior Subordinated Notes due 2027 at a redemption price equal to 100.000% of the principal amount, plus accrued and unpaid interest. We recorded a loss on extinguishment of $0.6 million for the redemption of the Senior Subordinated Notes due 2027 during the three and nine months ended September 30, 2026.

Odeon Credit Agreement. On April 17, 2026, Odeon Finco entered into the Odeon Credit Agreement and borrowed $425.0 million of Odeon Term Loans due 2031, which bore interest at a fixed rate of 10.50% per annum.

The proceeds, together with approximately $38.2 million of cash on hand, were used to fund the Odeon Notes Redemption and to pay related fees, costs, premiums and expenses, including approximately $23.5 million of interest due on the Odeon Notes due 2027. We treated the Odeon Notes Redemption as an extinguishment of debt and recorded a $30.1 million loss on extinguishment. On October 5, 2026, in connection with the 2026 Refinancing Transactions, Odeon Finco repaid the Odeon Term Loans due 2031 in full and the Odeon Credit Agreement was terminated. See Note 5—Corporate Borrowings and Finance Lease Liabilities and Note 11—Subsequent Events in the Notes to the Condensed Consolidated Financial Statements under Part I, Item 1 of this Form 10-Q for further information.

New Exchangeable Notes Voluntary Exchange. On May 4 and May 11, 2026, the Exchanging Noteholders delivered Notices of Voluntary Exchange to Muvico and GLAS Trust Company LLC, as exchange agent, to exchange all $155,845,562 aggregate principal amount of New Exchangeable Notes outstanding for shares of Common Stock, pursuant to the terms of the New Exchangeable Notes Indenture. The Company settled the Exchange by issuing an aggregate of 142,102,295 shares of Common Stock to the Exchanging Noteholders (including shares issued in respect of the Exchange Adjustment Consideration (as defined in the New Exchangeable Notes Indenture) and accrued and unpaid interest). We treated the Exchange as an extinguishment of the New Exchangeable Notes (including the bifurcated embedded derivative liability for the embedded conversion features) and recorded a loss on extinguishment of $33.0 million. We adjusted the bifurcated embedded derivative liability to fair value immediately prior to the Exchange. During the nine months ended September 30, 2026, we recorded $(11.1) million of other income related to the decrease in the fair value of the bifurcated embedded derivative liability. As a result of the Exchange, all remaining New Exchangeable Notes were cancelled in accordance with the New Exchangeable Notes Indenture.

Share Issuances. In June 2026, we entered into the Purchase Agreement with the Investors for the sale of 95,250,000 shares of Common Stock in the Offering, at a purchase price of $2.10 per share. The Offering closed on June 24, 2026.

In connection with the Offering, we entered into the Placement Agency Agreement with the Placement Agent, as exclusive placement agent in connection with the Offering. As compensation to the Placement Agent, the Company paid the Placement Agent a cash fee of 5.5% of the aggregate gross proceeds raised in the Offering and reimbursed certain expenses. We used a portion of the proceeds from the Offering to redeem the Senior Subordinated Notes due 2027, pay related fees, costs, premiums and expenses associated therewith and intend to use the remaining amount for general corporate purposes, which may include the repayment of other debt, the strengthening of our cash reserves and investments to enhance the moviegoing experience at our theatres.

During the three and nine months ended September 30, 2025, we completed a series of refinancing transactions with certain holders of the Existing 7.5% Notes, certain holders of the Existing Exchangeable Notes, and certain lenders of our term loans outstanding under our credit agreement. See Note 5—Corporate Borrowings and Finance Lease Liabilities in the Notes to the Condensed Consolidated Financial Statements under Part I, Item 1 of this Form 10-Q for further information regarding these transactions.

NCM ESA Amendment. On April 17, 2025, NCM entered into the Amended ESA with the Company. The term of the Amended ESA has been extended by five years through February 13, 2042. The Amended ESA was treated as a contract modification pursuant to ASC 606—Revenue from Contracts with Customers. Accordingly, we have allocated the additional consideration from the contract modification to the exhibitor services agreement contract liability and updated the discount rate used to account for the significant financing component to 16.12%. Prior to the contract modification, the weighted average discount rate used to account for the significant financing component was approximately 7.5%. The contract liability will be reclassified to other theatre revenue over the new term of the Amended ESA as the remaining performance obligations are satisfied. Concurrently with entering into the Amended ESA, NCM and the Company reached an agreement to, among other things, dismiss with prejudice the ongoing litigation between the parties.

Results of Operations—For the Three Months ended September 30, 2026, Compared to the Three Months ended September 30, 2025

Condensed Consolidated Results of Operations

Revenues. Total revenues increased $410.9 million, or 31.6%, during the three months ended September 30, 2026, compared to the three months ended September 30, 2025. Admissions revenues increased $238.4 million, or 33.3%, during the three months ended September 30, 2026, compared to the three months ended September 30, 2025, primarily due to an increase in attendance of 28.3% from 58.4 million patrons to 74.9 million patrons and a 3.9% increase in average ticket price. Attendance increased in U.S. and International markets due to the popularity of film product compared to the prior year. The increase in average ticket price was primarily due to increases in attendance for all premium format screens, higher ticket prices for all formats and more A-list subscription members paying a higher membership cost and visiting less frequently, partially offset by decreases in foreign currency translation rates.

Food and beverage revenues increased $137.6 million, or 30.5%, during the three months ended September 30, 2026, compared to the three months ended September 30, 2025, primarily due to the increase in attendance and increase in food and beverage per patron. Food and beverage per patron increased 1.7% from $7.74 to $7.87 primarily due to an increase in average prices and higher units per transaction by guests, partially offset by a decrease in the percentage of guests making transactions and decreases in foreign currency translation rates.

Total other theatre revenues increased $34.9 million, or 26.2%, during the three months ended September 30, 2026, compared to the three months ended September 30, 2025, primarily due to increases in revenue from ticket fees due to the increase in attendance, the number of guests paying ticket fees and increases in the price of ticket fees, increases in advertising revenue, partially offset by decreases in foreign currency translation rates.

Operating costs and expenses. Operating costs and expenses increased $198.0 million, or 15.7%, during the three months ended September 30, 2026, compared to the three months ended September 30, 2025. Film exhibition costs increased $124.1 million, or 35.2%, during the three months ended September 30, 2026, compared to the three months ended September 30, 2025, primarily due to the increase in admissions revenue due to the factors discussed above and the increase in film exhibition cost percentage. As a percentage of admissions revenues, film exhibition costs were 50.0% for the three months ended September 30, 2026, compared to 49.3% for the three months ended September 30, 2025.

Food and beverage costs increased $18.5 million, or 20.9%, during the three months ended September 30, 2026, compared to the three months ended September 30, 2025. The increase in food and beverage costs was primarily due to the increase in food and beverage revenues due to the factors discussed above, partially offset by the decrease in food and beverage cost as a percentage of food and beverage revenues. As a percentage of food and beverage revenues, food and beverage costs were 18.2% for the three months ended September 30, 2026, compared to 19.6% for the three months ended September 30, 2025.

Operating expense increased $36.9 million, or 7.9%, during the three months ended September 30, 2026, compared to the three months ended September 30, 2025. As a percentage of revenues, operating expense was 29.3% for the three months ended September 30, 2026, compared to 35.7% for the three months ended September 30, 2025. The decrease in operating expense as a percentage of revenues is primarily due to the operating leverage gained as attendance increases. Rent expense decreased $2.9 million, or 1.3%, during the three months ended September 30, 2026, compared to the three months ended September 30, 2025, primarily due to the decrease in average screens of 1.9% and decreases in foreign currency translation rates.

stock-based compensation expense of $14.8 million in our U.S. markets related to February 2026 equity unit awards approved by shareholders in September 2026 with accelerated expense recognition for certain grantees and increases in incentive bonus expense of $6.2 million as a result of higher than expected annual performance compared to annual industry box office and attendance indexed targets in the current year compared to the prior year, partially offset by the decrease in foreign currency translation rates. See Note 6—Stockholders' Deficit in the Notes to the Condensed Consolidated Financial Statements under Part I, Item 1 of this Form 10-Q for additional information about the increase in stock-based compensation expense in our U.S. markets.

Net earnings during the three months ended September 30, 2026 compared to net loss for the three months ended September 30, 2025 was positively impacted by the increase in attendance as a result of the popularity of new film releases compared to the prior year, decreases in other expense, decreases in interest expense, and decreases in depreciation and amortization, partially offset by increases in income tax provision, increases in rent expense, increases in general and administrative expenses, and decreases in investment income.

Results of Operations—For the Nine Months ended September 30, 2026, Compared to the Nine Months ended September 30, 2025

Condensed Consolidated Results of Operations

Revenues. Total revenues increased $792.6 million, or 22.3%, during the nine months ended September 30, 2026, compared to the nine months ended September 30, 2025. Admissions revenues increased $443.8 million, or 22.7%, during the nine months ended September 30, 2026, compared to the nine months ended September 30, 2025, primarily due to an increase in attendance of 18.9% from 163.1 million patrons to 193.8 million patrons and a 3.3% increase in average ticket price. The increase in average ticket price was primarily due to increased ticket prices for all formats, increases in attendance for IMAX, PLF and XL screens and increases in foreign currency translation rates, partially offset by decreases in contributions from 3D screens. Attendance increased in U.S. and International markets due to the popularity of film product compared to the prior year.

Food and beverage revenues increased $278.0 million, or 22.5%, during the nine months ended September 30, 2026, compared to the nine months ended September 30, 2025, primarily due to the increase in attendance and increase in food and beverage per patron. Food and beverage per patron increased 3.0% from $7.57 to $7.80 primarily due to an increase in average prices and increases in foreign currency translation rates, partially offset by lower units per transaction by guests.

Total other theatre revenues increased $70.8 million, or 18.9%, during the nine months ended September 30, 2026, compared to the nine months ended September 30, 2025, primarily due to increases in revenue from ticket fees due to the increase in attendance, the number of guests paying ticket fees and increases in the price of ticket fees, increases in advertising revenue and increases in foreign currency translation rates, partially offset by decreases in revenue from expirations of package tickets and gift cards in our International markets. As a result of our Amended ESA, advertising income increased from the prior year by $5.2 million due to an increase in discount rates related to the significant financing component of the Amended ESA, partially offset by lower amortization of deferred revenues due to an increase in the term of the Amended ESA. See Note 3—Revenue Recognition in the Notes to the Condensed Consolidated Financial Statements under Part I, Item 1 of this Form 10-Q for additional information about the Amended ESA.

Operating costs and expenses. Operating costs and expenses increased $334.0 million, or 9.3%, during the nine months ended September 30, 2026, compared to the nine months ended September 30, 2025. Film exhibition costs increased $223.1 million, or 23.5%, during the nine months ended September 30, 2026, compared to the nine months ended September 30, 2025, primarily due to the increase in admissions revenue due to the factors discussed above. The decrease in operating expense as a percentage of revenues is primarily due to the operating leverage gained as attendance increases. Rent expense increased $4.3 million, or 0.6%, during the nine months ended September 30, 2026, compared to the nine months ended September 30, 2025, primarily due to increases in foreign currency translation rates, partially offset by a decrease in average screens of 1.6%.

Adjusted EBITDA

We present Adjusted EBITDA as a supplemental measure of our performance. We define Adjusted EBITDA as net earnings (loss) plus (i) income tax provision (benefit), (ii) interest expense and (iii) depreciation and amortization, as further adjusted to eliminate the impact of certain items that we do not consider indicative of our ongoing operating performance and to include attributable EBITDA from equity investments in theatre operations in International markets. These further adjustments are itemized below. You are encouraged to evaluate these adjustments and the reasons we consider them appropriate for supplemental analysis. In evaluating Adjusted EBITDA, you should be aware that in the future we may incur expenses that are the same as or similar to some of the adjustments in this presentation. Our presentation of Adjusted EBITDA should not be construed as an inference that our future results will be unaffected by unusual or non-recurring items. Our definition of Adjusted EBITDA and adjustments made to net earnings (loss) to calculate it are broadly consistent with how Adjusted EBITDA is defined and calculated in our debt agreements.

During the first quarter of 2026, we changed our definition of Adjusted EBITDA to adjust for net periodic pension cost. Net periodic pension cost is a recurring expense that includes several components such as service cost, interest cost, expected return on plan assets, amortization of prior service cost, and amortization of actuarial gains/losses. Additionally, we also include infrequent gains and losses from benefit curtailments and settlements of pension obligations in net periodic pension cost. We no longer believe that net periodic pension cost should be included in Adjusted EBITDA as the pension plans are frozen, service cost is zero, and the remaining components are not indicative of ongoing operating performance as they are not driven by current operating decisions and largely depend on actuarial assumptions. While not the basis for this change, the revised definition further aligns our definition of Adjusted EBITDA with the definition used in our debt agreements. The adjustment for net periodic pension cost is included in the caption titled “other expense” in the condensed consolidated statement of operations and in the reconciliation of net earnings (loss) to Adjusted EBITDA further below. See the components of other expense table in Note 1—Basis of Presentation for net periodic pension cost recorded in each period presented. All comparative period information for Adjusted EBITDA has been re-cast to conform with the current definition. The impact of this change on previously reported Adjusted EBITDA for the three and nine months ended September 30, 2025 was an improvement of $0.3 million and $0.9 million, respectively.

The following tables set forth our Adjusted EBITDA by reportable operating segment and our reconciliation of Adjusted EBITDA:

(2) Amounts represent preopening expense related to temporarily closed screens under renovation, theatre and other closure expense for the permanent closure of screens, gains or losses from the disposition of assets, and other non-operating gains or losses included in operating expenses. We have excluded these items as they are non-cash in nature or related to theatres that are not open.

(3) Equity in earnings of non-consolidated entities during the three months ended September 30, 2026 primarily consisted of equity in earnings from AC JV of $(1.2) million. Equity in earnings of non-consolidated entities during the three months ended September 30, 2025 primarily consisted of equity in earnings from AC JV of $(0.8) million.

Equity in earnings of non-consolidated entities during the nine months ended September 30, 2026 primarily consisted of equity in earnings from AC JV of $(6.9) million. Equity in earnings of non-consolidated entities during the nine months ended September 30, 2025 primarily consisted of equity in earnings from AC JV of $(3.4) million.

(4) Attributable EBITDA includes the EBITDA from equity investments in theatre operators in certain International markets. See below for a reconciliation of our equity in (earnings) of non-consolidated entities to attributable EBITDA. Because these equity investments are in theatre operators in regions where we hold a significant market share, we believe attributable EBITDA is more indicative of the performance of these equity investments and management uses this measure to monitor and evaluate these equity investments.

(5) Investment income during the three months ended September 30, 2026 includes interest income of $(3.6) million, partially offset by unrealized losses on our investment in Hycroft of $0.6 million. Investment income during the three months ended September 30, 2025 included unrealized gains on our investments in Hycroft of $(9.3) million and interest income of $(2.3) million, partially offset by an impairment of an equity security without a readily determinable fair value of $10.3 million.

Investment income during the nine months ended September 30, 2026 includes realized and unrealized gains on our investments in Hycroft of $(15.9) million and interest income of $(4.9) million. Investment income during the nine months ended September 30, 2025 included unrealized gains on our investments in Hycroft of $(11.8) million and interest income of $(6.9) million, partially offset by an impairment of an equity security without a readily determinable fair value of $10.3 million.

(6) Other expense during the three months ended September 30, 2026 includes the increase in the fair value of the bifurcated embedded derivative in the Existing Exchangeable Notes of $6.4 million, other financing costs of $1.1 million, loss on extinguishment of the Senior Subordinated Notes due 2027 of $0.6 million, and net periodic pension cost of $0.5 million, partially offset by foreign currency transaction gains of $(1.6) million. Other expense during the three months ended September 30, 2025 included net losses on debt extinguishments of $196.0 million, foreign currency transaction losses of $9.0 million, term loan modification third party fees of $2.1 million and net periodic pension cost of $0.3 million, partially offset by a decrease in the fair value of the bifurcated embedded derivative in the Existing Exchangeable Notes of $(1.4) million and a decrease in the fair value of the bifurcated embedded derivative in the New Exchangeable Notes of $(9.5) million.

Other expense during the nine months ended September 30, 2026 includes the loss on extinguishment of the New Exchangeable Notes of $33.0 million, the loss on extinguishment of the Odeon Notes due 2027 of $30.1 million, the increase in the fair value of the bifurcated embedded derivative in the Existing Exchangeable Notes of $9.1 million, foreign currency transaction losses of $7.0 million, net periodic pension cost of $1.5 million, other financing costs of $1.1 million, loss on extinguishment of the Senior Subordinated Notes due 2027 of $0.6 million, and debt modification third party fees of $0.3 million, partially offset by the decrease in the fair value of the bifurcated embedded derivative in the New Exchangeable Notes of $(11.1) million. Other expense during the nine months ended September 30, 2025 included net losses on debt extinguishments of $196.0 million, term loan modification third party fees of $2.1 million and net periodic pension cost of $0.9 million, partially offset by a decrease in the fair value of the bifurcated embedded derivative in the Existing Exchangeable Notes of $(42.6) million, a decrease in the fair value of the bifurcated embedded derivative in the New Exchangeable Notes of $(9.5) million and foreign currency transaction gains of $(27.9) million.

(7) Merger, acquisition and other costs are excluded as they are non-operating in nature.

(8) Non-cash expense included in general and administrative: other.

Adjusted EBITDA is a non-GAAP financial measure commonly used in our industry and should not be construed as an alternative to net earnings (loss) as an indicator of operating performance (as determined in accordance with U.S. GAAP). Adjusted EBITDA may not be comparable to similarly titled measures reported by other companies. We have included Adjusted EBITDA because we believe it provides management and investors with additional information to measure our performance and estimate our value.

Adjusted EBITDA has important limitations as an analytical tool, and you should not consider it in isolation, or as a substitute for analysis of our results as reported under U.S. GAAP. For example, Adjusted EBITDA:

- does not reflect our capital expenditures, future requirements for capital expenditures or contractual commitments;
- does not reflect changes in, or cash requirements for, our working capital needs;
- does not reflect the significant interest expenses, or the cash requirements necessary to service interest or principal payments on our debt;
- excludes income tax payments that represent a reduction in cash available to us; and
- does not reflect any cash requirements for the assets being depreciated and amortized that may have to be replaced in the future.

During the three months ended September 30, 2026, Adjusted EBITDA in the U.S. markets was $275.0 million compared to $111.2 million during the three months ended September 30, 2025. The year-over-year increase was primarily driven by an increase in attendance due to the popularity of film releases compared to the prior year, an increase in average ticket price, and an increase in food and beverage per patron, partially offset by an increase in general and administrative expenses primarily related to increases in incentive bonus expense due to performance. During the three months ended September 30, 2026, Adjusted EBITDA in the International markets was $72.5 million compared to $11.3 million during the three months ended September 30, 2025. The year-over-year increase was primarily driven by an increase in attendance due to the popularity of film releases compared to the prior year and an increase in average ticket price. During the three months ended September 30, 2026, Adjusted EBITDA in the U.S. markets and International markets was $347.5 million compared to $122.5 million during the three months ended September 30, 2025, driven by the aforementioned factors impacting Adjusted EBITDA.

During the nine months ended September 30, 2026, Adjusted EBITDA in the U.S. markets was $582.5 million compared to $235.4 million during the nine months ended September 30, 2025. The year-over-year increase was primarily driven by an increase in attendance due to the popularity of film releases compared to the prior year, an increase in average ticket price, an increase in food and beverage per patron, a decrease in rent expense, and an increase in advertising revenues in other revenues related to an increase in discount rates for the significant financing component of the Amended ESA, partially offset by an increase in general and administrative expenses primarily related to increases in incentive bonus expense due to performance. During the nine months ended September 30, 2026, Adjusted EBITDA in the International markets was $124.7 million compared to $18.9 million during the nine months ended September 30, 2025. The year-over-year increase was primarily driven by an increase in attendance due to the popularity of film releases compared to the prior year, an increase in average ticket price, an increase in food and beverage per patron and the increase in foreign currency translation rates, partially offset by lower amounts of governmental assistance and decreases in revenue from expirations of package tickets and gift cards. During the nine months ended September 30, 2026, Adjusted EBITDA in the U.S. markets and International markets was $707.2 million compared to $254.3 million during the nine months ended September 30, 2025, driven by the aforementioned factors impacting Adjusted EBITDA.

LIQUIDITY AND CAPITAL RESOURCES

Our consolidated revenues are primarily collected in cash, principally through admissions and food and beverage sales. We have an operating “float” which partially finances our operations and which generally permits us to maintain a smaller amount of working capital capacity. This float exists because admissions revenues are received in cash, while exhibition costs (primarily film rentals) are ordinarily paid to distributors from 14 to 49 days following receipt of admissions revenues. Film distributors generally release the films which they anticipate will be the most successful during the summer and year-end holiday seasons. Consequently, we typically generate higher revenues during such periods and experience higher working capital requirements following such periods.

We had working capital deficit (excluding restricted cash) as of September 30, 2026, and December 31, 2025 of $(792.8) million and $(1,090.6) million, respectively. As of September 30, 2026 and December 31, 2025, working capital included operating lease liabilities of $569.1 million and $560.0 million, respectively, and deferred revenues of $452.6 million and $465.5 million, respectively.

As of September 30, 2026, we had cash and cash equivalents of $751.9 million.

During the nine months ended September 30, 2026, we enhanced liquidity through equity issuances. See Note 6—Stockholders’ Deficit in the Notes to the Condensed Consolidated Financial Statements under Part I, Item 1 of this Form 10-Q for further information.

We expect, from time to time, to continue to seek to retire or purchase our outstanding debt through cash purchases and/or exchanges for equity or debt, in open-market purchases, privately negotiated transactions or otherwise. We continuously monitor the capital markets and our capital structure, and may, from time to time, seek to refinance, amend or otherwise restructure our outstanding debt on an opportunistic basis. Such repurchases, refinancings, amendments, restructurings or exchanges, if any, will be upon such terms and at such prices as we may determine, and will depend on prevailing market conditions, our liquidity requirements, the availability of authorized share capital, contractual restrictions and other factors. The amounts involved may be material and, to the extent equity is used, dilutive.

2026 Refinancing Transactions

On October 5, 2026, we completed the 2026 Refinancing Transactions, which included issuing $2,000.0 million aggregate principal amount of 8.875% first lien notes, $850.0 million aggregate principal amount of first lien term loans, $1,120.0 million aggregate principal amount of second lien term loans and the repayment, redemption and discharge of certain existing indebtedness. See Note 11—Subsequent Events for further information regarding the 2026 Refinancing Transactions.

Odeon Credit Agreement

On April 17, 2026, Odeon Finco entered into the Odeon Credit Agreement and borrowed $425.0 million of Odeon Term Loans due 2031, which bore interest at a fixed rate of 10.50% per annum.

The proceeds, together with approximately $38.2 million of cash on hand, were used to fund the Odeon Notes Redemption and to pay related fees, costs, premiums and expenses, including approximately $23.5 million of interest due on the Odeon Notes due 2027. On October 5, 2026, in connection with the 2026 Refinancing Transactions, Odeon Finco repaid the Odeon Term Loans due 2031 in full and the Odeon Credit Agreement was terminated. See Note 5—Corporate Borrowings and Finance Lease Liabilities and Note 11—Subsequent Events in the Notes to the Condensed Consolidated Financial Statements under Part I, Item 1 of this Form 10-Q for further information.

New Exchangeable Notes Voluntary Exchange

On May 4 and May 11, 2026, the Exchanging Noteholders delivered Notices of Voluntary Exchange to Muvico and GLAS Trust Company LLC, as exchange agent, to exchange all $155,845,562 aggregate principal amount of New Exchangeable Notes outstanding for shares of Common Stock, pursuant to the terms of the New Exchangeable Notes Indenture. We settled the Exchange by issuing an aggregate of 142,102,295 shares of Common Stock to the Exchanging Noteholders (including shares issued in respect of the Exchange Adjustment Consideration (as defined in the New Exchangeable Notes Indenture) and $0.9 million accrued and unpaid interest). As a result of the Exchange, all remaining New Exchangeable Notes were cancelled in accordance with the New Exchangeable Notes Indenture.

2027 Senior Subordinated Notes Redemption

Concurrently with the completion of the Offering, on June 24, 2026, we delivered a notice of full redemption to holders of our $125.5 million aggregate principal amount of Senior Subordinated Notes due 2027 to redeem the Senior Subordinated Notes due 2027 in full at a redemption price equal to 100.000% of the principal amount of the Senior Subordinated Notes due 2027, plus accrued and unpaid interest. On July 24, 2026, we redeemed the Senior Subordinated Notes due 2027 in full and recorded a loss on extinguishment of $0.6 million.

Liquidity Requirements

We believe our existing cash and cash equivalents, together with cash generated from operations, will be sufficient to fund our operations and satisfy our obligations currently and through the next twelve months. Our historical cash burn rates are not sustainable long-term. Until such time as we are able to achieve consistent attendance and revenue levels sufficient to generate sustainable annual net positive cash flows from operating activities, it is difficult to estimate our future cash burn rates and liquidity requirements. Depending on our assumptions regarding the timing to achieve consistent levels of attendance and revenue sufficient to generate sustainable annual net positive cash flows from operating activities, the estimates of the required liquidity vary significantly. We have achieved net positive cash flows from operating activities for the nine months ended September 30, 2026.

There can be no assurance that the revenues, costs, attendance levels and other assumptions used to estimate our liquidity requirements and future cash burn rates will be correct, and our ability to be predictive is uncertain due to our limited ability to predict studio film release dates, the overall production and theatrical release levels and success of individual titles. Further, there can be no assurances that we will be successful in generating the additional liquidity necessary to meet our obligations beyond twelve months from the issuance of this Quarterly Report on terms acceptable to us or at all.

As a result of the 2026 Refinancing Transactions, almost all of our debt maturities have been extended and we also reduced the average interest rate payable on our debt. The following table provides the principal payments required and maturities of corporate borrowings after giving effect to the 2026 Refinancing Transactions:

(In millions)	Principal Amount of Corporate Borrowings
2027	$ 8.5
2028	8.5
2029	8.5
2030	124.6
2031	2,816.0
Thereafter	1,120.0
Total	$ 4,086.1

The following is a summary of our net cash flows for the nine months ended September 30, 2026 and September 30, 2025:

(in millions)	September 30, 2026	September 30, 2025
Operating activities	$ 283.5	$ (246.5)
Investing activities	(126.8)	(163.9)
Financing activities	161.5	134.3

Cash Flows from Operating Activities

Net cash provided by (used in) operating activities improved by $530.0 million primarily due to increases in attendance, increases in average ticket prices, increases in food and beverage per patron, increases in advertising revenue, increases in lease incentives, decreases in cash paid for interest, and an increase in cash provided by working capital. The increase in cash provided by working capital was primarily driven by the float from film rental payments, which typically are paid to distributors 14 to 49 days following the receipt of admissions revenue. The box office in the third quarter of 2026 outperformed the box office in the third quarter of 2025.

Cash Flows from Investing Activities

Net cash used in investing activities decreased by $37.1 million primarily due to proceeds from the sale of part of our investment in Hycroft, increases in proceeds from sales of long-term assets, and decreases in investments in non-consolidated entities.

We fund the costs of constructing, maintaining and remodeling our theatres through existing cash balances, cash generated from operations, lease incentives, or capital raised, as necessary. We generally lease our theatres pursuant to long-term, non-cancelable operating leases, which may require the developer who owns the property, to help fund our construction costs by offering lease incentives. We estimate that our capital expenditures, net of lease incentives, will be approximately $200.0 million to $235.0 million for the year ending December 31, 2026 to maintain and enhance operations.

Cash Flows from Financing Activities

Net cash provided by financing activities increased by $27.2 million primarily due to increased proceeds from equity issuances and decreases in cash used for deferred financing costs, partially offset by increases in net cash used to redeem or refinance indebtedness.

Covenant Compliance

As of September 30, 2026, we believe that we were in full compliance with all agreements, including related covenants, governing our outstanding debt.

Item 3. Quantitative and Qualitative Disclosures about Market Risk

In the ordinary course of business, our financial results are exposed to fluctuations in interest rates and foreign currency exchange rates. We manage the risk of fluctuations in interest rates by maintaining an appropriate balance between our fixed and floating-rate debt. In accordance with applicable guidance, we presented a sensitivity analysis showing the potential impact to net earnings (loss) of changes in interest rates and foreign currency exchange rates. For the nine months ended September 30, 2026 and September 30, 2025, our analysis utilized a hypothetical 100 basis-point increase or decrease to the average interest rate on our variable rate debt instruments to illustrate the potential impact to interest expense of changes in interest rates. Our analysis also utilized a hypothetical 100 basis-point increase or decrease to market interest rates on our performance-based variable-rate financial instruments and fixed rate financial instruments to illustrate the potential impact to fair value of changes in interest rates.

Similarly, for the same period, our analysis used a uniform and hypothetical 10% increase in foreign currency translation rates to depict the potential impact on net earnings (loss) due to changes in foreign exchange rates. These market risk instruments and the potential impacts to the condensed consolidated statements of operations are presented below.

Market risk on performance-based & market-based variable-rate hybrid financial instruments. As of September 30, 2026, we had an aggregate of $1,979.2 million outstanding principal amount of our Muvico Term Loans which bear interest, at our option, at rates equal to either (i) a base rate plus a margin of between 500 and 600 basis points depending on the total leverage ratio of the Company and its subsidiaries on a consolidated basis (the "Total Leverage Ratio") or (ii) Term SOFR plus a margin of between 600 and 700 basis points depending on the Total Leverage Ratio.

The rate in effect for the outstanding Muvico Term Loans was 9.891% per annum as of September 30, 2026, and 11.134% per annum for the Muvico Term Loans as of September 30, 2025.

Increases in market interest rates would cause interest expense to increase and earnings before income taxes to decrease. The change in interest expense and earnings before income taxes would be dependent upon the weighted average outstanding borrowings during the reporting period following an increase in market interest rates. A 100-basis point change in market interest rates would have increased or decreased interest expense on the Muvico Term Loans by approximately $14.9 million during the nine months ended September 30, 2026.

A 100-basis point change in market interest rates would have increased or decreased interest expense on the Muvico Term Loans by $15.0 million during the nine months ended September 30, 2025.

On October 5, 2026, we repaid all of the outstanding Muvico Term Loans and borrowed $850.0 million aggregate principal amount of New 1L Term Loans as part of the 2026 Refinancing Transactions. The New 1L Term Loans bear interest at the Company's election, at either (i) the Alternate Base Rate (as defined in the New 1L Term Loan Credit Agreement) or (ii) Adjusted Term SOFR (as defined in the New 1L Term Loan Credit Agreement) for the applicable interest period, in each case plus the Applicable Rate (as defined in the New 1L Term Loan Credit Agreement). The change in capital structure reduces the magnitude of the market risk of our floating-rate financial instruments. On a pro forma basis, giving effect to the 2026 Refinancing Transactions as if they had occurred on January 1, 2026, our floating-rate debt would have consisted of $850.0 million aggregate principal amount of New 1L Term Loans, and a 100-basis point change in market interest rates would have increased or decreased interest expense on our floating-rate debt by approximately $6.4 million during the nine months ended September 30, 2026, compared with approximately $14.9 million on the Muvico Term Loans.

Market risk on performance-based variable-rate financial instruments. As of September 30, 2026, we had an aggregate of $903.4 million outstanding principal amount of the New 2029 Notes which bear interest ranging from 11.5% to 15.0% per annum depending on the Total Leverage Ratio. The rate in effect for the outstanding New 2029 Notes was 15.0% per annum at September 30, 2026.

A 100-basis point change in market interest rates would have caused an increase (decrease) in the fair value of our performance-based variable-rate financial instruments of approximately $21.8 million and $(21.2) million, respectively, as of September 30, 2026.

On October 5, 2026, in connection with the 2026 Refinancing Transactions, the New 2029 Notes were redeemed in full and the New 2029 Notes Indenture was satisfied and discharged, As a result, following the 2026 Refinancing Transactions, we no longer have any performance-based variable-rate financial instruments outstanding.

Market risk on fixed-rate financial instruments. Included in corporate borrowings as of September 30, 2026, were principal amounts of $116.1 million of the Existing Exchangeable Notes, $360.0 million of the Existing 7.5% Notes, and $423.9 million of the Odeon Term Loans due 2031. A 100-basis point change in market interest rates would have caused an increase or (decrease) in the fair value of our fixed rate financial instruments of approximately $27.2 million and $(26.2) million, respectively, as of September 30, 2026.

Included in corporate borrowings as of September 30, 2025, were principal amounts of $154.5 million of the New Exchangeable Notes, $107.3 million of the Existing Exchangeable Notes, $360.0 million of the Existing 7.5% Notes, $400.0 million of the Odeon Notes due 2027, and $125.5 million of the Senior Subordinated Notes due 2027. A 100-basis point change in market interest rates would have caused an increase or (decrease) in the fair value of our fixed rate financial instruments of approximately $28.5 million and $(27.5) million, respectively, as of September 30, 2025.

On October 5, 2026, in connection with the 2026 Refinancing Transactions, we repaid, redeemed or discharged the Existing 7.5% Notes and the Odeon Term Loans due 2031, and issued $2,000.0 million aggregate principal amount of 2031 Notes, which bear interest at a rate of 8.875% per annum, and incurred $1,120.0 million aggregate principal amount of New 2L Term Loans, which bear interest at a fixed rate of 11.25% per annum. The change in capital structure increases the magnitude of the market risk of our fixed-rate financial instruments. On a pro forma basis as of October 5, 2026, our fixed-rate financial instruments consisted of the 2031 Notes, the New 2L Term Loans and $116.1 million aggregate principal amount of Existing Exchangeable Notes, and a 100-basis point change in market interest rates would have caused an increase (decrease) in the fair value of these fixed rate financial instruments of approximately $139.4 million and $(132.0) million, respectively, of which $135.9 million and $(128.7) million, respectively, relate to the 2031 Notes and the New 2L Term Loans.

Immediately following the 2026 Refinancing Transactions, approximately $3,236.1 million aggregate principal amount, or approximately 79.2% of our corporate borrowings bore interest at fixed rates, and $850.0 million, or approximately 20.8%, bore interest at floating rates.

Foreign currency exchange rate risk. We are also exposed to market risk arising from changes in foreign currency exchange rates affecting our International markets operations. International markets revenues and operating expenses are transacted in British Pounds, Euros, Swedish Krona and Norwegian Krone. U.S. GAAP requires that our subsidiaries use the currency of the primary economic environment in which they operate as their functional currency. If any international subsidiary operates in a highly inflationary economy, U.S. GAAP requires that the U.S. dollar be used as the functional currency. Currency fluctuations in the countries in which we operate result in us reporting exchange gains (losses) or foreign currency translation adjustments. Based upon the functional currencies in the International markets as of September 30, 2026, holding everything else constant, a hypothetical 10% increase in foreign currency translation rates to depict the potential impact to net loss of changes in foreign exchange rates would increase the aggregate net loss of our International markets for the nine months ended September 30, 2026, by approximately $2.2 million. Based upon the functional currencies in the International markets as of September 30, 2025, holding everything else constant, a hypothetical 10% increase in foreign currency translation rates to depict the potential impact to net loss of changes in foreign exchange rates would increase the aggregate net loss of our International markets for the nine months ended September 30, 2025, by approximately $6.5 million.

Our foreign currency translation rates decreased by approximately 0.7% for the three months ended September 30, 2026 compared to the three months ended September 30, 2025, and increased 3.3% for the nine months ended September 30, 2026, compared to the nine months ended September 30, 2025.

Item 4. Controls and Procedures.

(a) Evaluation of disclosure controls and procedures.

The Company maintains a set of disclosure controls and procedures designed to ensure that material information required to be disclosed in its filings under the Securities Exchange Act of 1934 (the "Exchange Act") is recorded, processed, summarized and reported within the time periods specified in the SEC's rules and forms and that material information is accumulated and communicated to the Company's management, including its Chief Executive Officer and Chief Financial Officer, as appropriate, to allow timely decisions regarding required disclosure. The Company's Chief Executive Officer and Chief Financial Officer have evaluated these disclosure controls and procedures as of the end of the period covered by this Quarterly Report on Form 10–Q and have determined that such disclosure controls and procedures were effective.

(b) Changes in internal control.

There has been no change in our internal control over financial reporting as defined in Exchange Act Rule 13a-15(f) during our most recent fiscal quarter that has materially affected, or is reasonably likely to materially affect, our internal control over financial reporting.

PART II—OTHER INFORMATION

Item 1. Legal Proceedings

On October 31, 2025, a purported securities class action captioned Simons v. AMC Entertainment Holdings, Inc., No. 1:25-cv-09042-JLR, was filed by a purported former holder of AMC Preferred Equity Units against the Company in the United States District Court for the Southern District of New York. The complaint asserts a claim under Section 10(b) of the Exchange Act based on allegedly false and misleading public statements and omissions by the Company during the period from August 18, 2022 to November 1, 2023 concerning the conversion of the AMC Preferred Equity Units. The original complaint alleged damages of at least $178 million, plus pre-judgment interest. On June 8, 2026, Plaintiff informed the court that he no longer intends to pursue claims on a class-wide basis and sought leave to file an amended complaint to assert individual claims, which was granted by the court on June 9, 2026. On August 10, 2026, Plaintiff filed an amended complaint seeking recovery on an individual basis alleging damages of approximately $40,500 and, as a result, the Company no longer considers this action material. We do not expect to provide further updates regarding this action.

On December 5, 2025, an action captioned Masoner v. AMC Entertainment Holdings, Inc. et al., No. N25C-12-022 was filed by two purported AMC stockholders against the Company, Adam Aron, and unspecified members of the Company's board of directors in the Superior Court of the State of Delaware. The complaint asserted claims for, among other things, fraud, fraud on the court, breach of fiduciary duty, unjust enrichment, and conspiracy based on the 2023 settlement of the action captioned In re AMC Entertainment Holdings, Inc. Stockholder Litigation No. 2023-0215-MTZ (Del. Ch.). Plaintiffs seek, among other things, monetary damages of approximately $4.2 million, disgorgement of approximately $18 million, and declaratory, equitable, and injunctive relief. On March 18, 2026, defendants filed a motion to dismiss the complaint. On March 24, 2026, plaintiffs filed an amended complaint, which added certain current and former directors of the Company's board of directors as defendants. On April 8, 2026, defendants filed a motion to dismiss the amended complaint, which is fully briefed and remains pending.

Item 1A. Risk Factors

Reference is made to Part I Item 1A. Risk Factors in our Annual Report on Form 10–K for the year ended December 31, 2025, which sets forth information relating to important risks and uncertainties that could materially adversely affect our business, financial condition or operating results. Except as set forth below, there have been no material changes to the risk factors contained in our Annual Report on Form 10-K for the year ended December 31, 2025.

There has been significant recent dilution and there may continue to be additional future dilution of our Common Stock, which could adversely affect the market price of shares of our Common Stock.

From January 1, 2020 through November 3, 2026, the outstanding shares of our Common Stock have increased by 887,396,630 shares (on a Reverse Stock Split (as defined below) adjusted basis) in a combination of at-the-market sales, forward sales, conversion of Series A Convertible Participating Preferred Stock, shareholder litigation settlement, conversion of Class B common stock, conversion of notes, exchanges of notes, consent fee payments, transaction fee payments, and equity grant vesting. On March 14, 2023, we held a special meeting of our stockholders and obtained the requisite stockholder approval for certain amendments to the Company's Third Amended and Restated Certificate of Incorporation to increase the Company's total number of authorized shares of Common Stock and to effectuate a reverse split at a ratio of one share of Common Stock for every ten shares of Common Stock (the "Charter Amendments") and on August 14, 2023, we filed the amendment to our certificate of incorporation implementing the Charter Amendments, effective as of August 24, 2023. In accordance with the Charter Amendments, we increased the total number of authorized shares of Common Stock from 524,173,073 to 550,000,000 shares of Common Stock and effectuated a reverse stock split at a ratio of one share of Common Stock for every ten shares of Common Stock outstanding (the "Reverse Stock Split"). In accordance with the terms of the Certificate of Designations governing the Series A Convertible Participating Preferred Stock, following the effectiveness of the Charter Amendments all outstanding shares of our Series A Convertible Participating Preferred Stock converted into 99,540,642 shares of Common Stock. In addition, as described below, on December 10, 2025, following approval by our stockholders at the Annual Meeting (as defined herein), we increased the total number of authorized shares of Common Stock from 550,000,000 to 1,100,000,000.

On July 22, 2024, the Company and certain of its subsidiaries consummated a series of refinancing transactions (the "2024 Refinancing Transactions") pursuant to which Muvico issued $414.4 million aggregate principal amount of Existing Exchangeable Notes that are exchangeable into shares of Common Stock. On July 1, 2025, the Company and Muvico commenced the 2025 Refinancing Transactions pursuant to which the Company issued 79,800,000 shares of Common Stock in exchange for $143.0 million aggregate principal amount of Existing Exchangeable Notes. Subsequently, on July 24, 2025, the Company exchanged approximately $194.4 million aggregate principal amount of Existing Exchangeable Notes for Muvico's New Exchangeable Notes on a dollar-for-dollar basis. On September 30, 2025, $39.9 million aggregate principal amount of New Exchangeable Notes were cancelled pursuant to a downward adjustment feature in the New Exchangeable Notes, which represented the maximum possible downward adjustment under the New Exchangeable Notes.

As of September 30, 2026, approximately $116.1 million aggregate principal amount of Existing Exchangeable Notes were outstanding, including interest paid-in-kind in the form of additional Existing Exchangeable Notes ("PIK Notes") to the holders thereof. If the outstanding Existing Exchangeable Notes were exchanged fully into shares of Common Stock as of September 30, 2026, they would be converted into an aggregate of approximately 23.1 million shares of Common Stock. If the outstanding Existing Exchangeable Notes were converted fully into shares of our Common Stock at maturity, and we were to elect to issue additional Existing Exchangeable Notes as PIK Notes on such outstanding Existing Exchangeable Notes and PIK Notes to the full extent permitted during the life of the Existing Exchangeable Notes (without regard to any limitations on our authorized share capital or on the exchange therein and giving effect to the changes in the applicable make-whole fee over the period), such Existing Exchangeable Notes (including PIK Notes) would be convertible at maturity into an aggregate of approximately 27.8 million shares of Common Stock.

At the Company's 2025 Annual Meeting of Stockholders held on December 10, 2025 (the "Annual Meeting"), the Company's stockholders approved an amendment to the Company's certificate of incorporation to increase the total number of authorized shares of Common Stock from 550,000,000 shares to 1,100,000,000 shares (the "Authorized Share Increase"), which additional shares may be used for at-the-market sales, exchanges of notes, private placement transactions, equity grant vesting and other dilutive issuances. Accordingly, we may issue additional shares of Common Stock to raise cash to bolster our liquidity, to repay, refinance, redeem or exchange indebtedness (including expenses, accrued interest and premium, if any), for working capital, to finance strategic initiatives and future acquisitions, and to settle exchanges of the Existing Exchangeable Notes, including any PIK Notes, or for other purposes. Furthermore, in connection with the 2025 Refinancing Transactions and the issuance of the New Exchangeable Notes, we paid a consent fee to certain consenting holders of the Existing Exchangeable Notes of 10.9 million shares of Common Stock. Additionally, as consent fees for amending their respective indentures to provide us with greater flexibility to refinance our capital structure, we paid a consent fee of 4.5 million shares of Common Stock to consenting holders of the New Exchangeable Notes and 17.7 million shares of Common Stock to consenting holders of the New 2029 Notes. In addition, in connection with the Authorized Share Increase, the New Exchangeable Notes became exchangeable for shares of our Common Stock. In May 2026, we exchanged 142.1 million shares of Common Stock for the New Exchangeable Notes, including accrued and unpaid interest, representing the exchange in full of the New Exchangeable Notes for shares of Common Stock.

As of November 3, 2026, there were 892,604,638 shares of Common Stock issued and outstanding. In addition, as described above, shares of Common Stock may be used to settle exchanges of the Existing Exchangeable Notes, including any additional Existing Exchangeable Notes or interest paid in-kind by issuing Existing Exchangeable Notes, or for other purposes. We may also issue preferred equity securities or securities convertible into, or exchangeable for, or that represent the right to receive, shares of Common Stock or acquire interests in other companies, or other assets by using a combination of cash and shares of Common Stock, or just shares of Common Stock. Additionally, vesting of outstanding awards pursuant to our equity compensation program results in the issuance of new shares of Common Stock, net of any shares withheld to cover tax withholding obligations upon vesting. Any of these events may significantly dilute the ownership interests of current stockholders, reduce our earnings per share or have an adverse effect on the price of our shares of Common Stock.

As of November 3, 2026, we had approximately 143,258,701 authorized shares of Common Stock that have not been issued or reserved for issuance in connection with our employee plans or exchanges under the Existing Exchangeable Notes. As a result, we may in the future seek to obtain the requisite stockholder approval for the authorization of an additional number of authorized and unissued and unreserved shares of Common Stock, which may be used for at-the-market sales, exchanges of notes, private placement transactions, equity grant vesting and other dilutive issuances. These future issuances may be dilutive and may result in a decline in the market price of our Common Stock. The remaining authorized shares assume that no additional PIK interest is paid on the Existing Exchangeable Notes.

The market price and trading volume of our shares of Common Stock have experienced, and may continue to experience, extreme volatility, which could cause purchasers of our Common Stock to incur substantial losses.

The market prices and trading volume of our shares of Common Stock have experienced, and may continue to experience, extreme volatility, which could cause purchasers of our Common Stock to incur substantial losses. For example, during 2026 to date, the market price of our Common Stock has fluctuated from an intra-day low on the New York Stock Exchange ("NYSE") of $0.93 per share on March 27, 2026 to an intra-day high on the NYSE of $3.40 on September 28, 2026. The last reported sale price of our Common Stock on the NYSE on November 3, 2026, was $3.28 per share. During 2026 to date, daily trading volume ranged from approximately 9,912,400 to 186,756,900 shares.

We believe that the volatility and our market prices have reflected and may continue to reflect market and trading dynamics unrelated to our underlying business, or macro or industry fundamentals, and we do not know how long these dynamics will last.

Extreme fluctuations in the market price of our Common Stock have been accompanied by reports of strong and atypical retail investor interest, including on social media and online forums. The market volatility and trading patterns we have experienced create several risks for investors, including the following:

- the market price of our Common Stock has experienced and may continue to experience rapid and substantial increases or decreases unrelated to our operating performance or prospects, or macro or industry fundamentals, and substantial increases may be significantly inconsistent with the risks and uncertainties that we continue to face;
- factors in the public trading market for our Common Stock may include the sentiment of retail investors (including as may be expressed on financial trading and other social media sites and online forums), the direct access by retail investors to broadly available trading platforms, the amount and status of short interest in our securities, access to margin debt, trading in options and other derivatives on our Common Stock and any related hedging and other trading factors;
- our market capitalization, as implied by various trading prices, currently reflects valuations that diverge significantly from historical valuations, and to the extent these valuations reflect trading dynamics unrelated to our financial performance or prospects, purchasers of our Common Stock could incur substantial losses if there are declines in market prices;
- to the extent volatility in our Common Stock is caused, or may from time to time be caused, as has widely been reported, by a "short squeeze" in which coordinated trading activity causes a spike in the market price of our Common Stock as traders with a short position make market purchases to avoid or to mitigate potential losses, investors purchase at inflated prices unrelated to our financial performance or prospects, and may thereafter suffer substantial losses as prices decline once the level of short-covering purchases has abated; and

- if the market price of our Common Stock declines, investors may be unable to resell shares of our Common Stock at or above the price at which their investment was made. Our Common Stock may continue to fluctuate or decline significantly in the future, which may result in substantial losses.

Future increases or decreases in the market price of our Common Stock may not coincide in timing with the disclosure of news or developments by or affecting us. Accordingly, the market price of our shares of Common Stock may fluctuate dramatically, and may decline rapidly, regardless of any developments in our business. Overall, there are various factors, many of which are beyond our control, that could negatively affect the market price of our Common Stock or result in fluctuations in the price or trading volume of our Common Stock, including:

- actual or anticipated variations in our annual or quarterly results of operations, including our earnings estimates and whether we meet market expectations with regard to our earnings;
- restrictions on our ability to pay dividends or other distributions;
- publication of research reports by analysts or others about us or the motion picture exhibition industry, which may be unfavorable, inaccurate, inconsistent or not disseminated on a regular basis;
- changes in market interest rates that may cause purchasers of our shares to demand a different yield;
- changes in market valuations of similar companies;
- market reaction to any additional equity, debt or other securities that we may issue in the future, and which may or may not dilute the holdings of our existing stockholders;
- additions or departures of key personnel;
- actions by institutional or significant stockholders;
- short interest in our securities and the market response to such short interest;
- the dramatic increase or decrease in the number of individual holders of our Common Stock and their participation in social media platforms targeted at speculative investing;
- speculation in the press or investment community about our company or industry;
- strategic actions by us or our competitors, such as acquisitions or other investments;
- legislative, administrative, regulatory or other actions affecting our business or our industry, including positions taken by the Internal Revenue Service;
- strategic actions taken by motion picture studios such as the shuffling of film release dates;
- investigations, proceedings, or litigation that involve or affect us;
- recent trends in the theatrical exhibition industry;
- the occurrence of any of the other risk factors included or incorporated by reference in our Annual Report on Form 10-K; and
- general market and economic conditions.

The Company's current equity incentive plan has insufficient shares to make grants at historic levels. Without additional shares authorized for the plan, the Company could experience difficulties retaining and hiring executives due to its inability to issue compensatory equity awards and could experience an adverse impact on its cash flow or adverse accounting consequences from alternative forms of compensation.

On September 24, 2026, the Company’s stockholders approved the First Amendment to the Company’s 2024 Equity Incentive Plan (as amended, the “Equity Incentive Plan”), which increased the number of shares of Common Stock available for issuance under the Equity Incentive Plan from 25,000,000 to 50,000,000 shares, and the Company filed a registration statement on Form S-8 on September 24, 2026 to register the additional 25,000,000 shares. Notwithstanding this increase, based on currently anticipated grant practices, the Equity Incentive Plan may have insufficient available shares to make additional grants at historic levels through the 2027 Annual Meeting of Stockholders. As required by NYSE rules, the Company intends to ask its stockholders for approval to allocate additional shares to the Equity Incentive Plan at the 2027 Annual Meeting of Stockholders. There can be no assurance that the stockholders will approve additional shares. The absence of a sufficient number of shares available under the Equity Incentive Plan may create challenges for executive recruitment and retention. Absent additional shares, the Company could issue equity-related awards to be settled in cash. The issuance of such awards may mitigate short-term risks related to executive recruitment and retention, but cash settlements of such awards would negatively impact our cash flow and would require the Company to account for these awards based on the fair value of the related equity at the end of each reporting period, giving effect to the portion of services rendered during the requisite service periods. Until such time as the stockholders approve additional shares for the Equity Incentive Plan, additional equity-related awards made to executives may need to be settled in cash. Continued issuance of cash-settled awards may not be sustainable depending on the Company's cash flow.

Rule 10b5-1 Trading Arrangements

Except as set forth below, in the third quarter of 2026, no director or officer (as defined in Exchange Act Rule 16a-1(f)) of AMC adopted or terminated a Rule 10b5-1 trading arrangement or non-Rule 10b5-1 trading arrangement for the purchase or sale of securities of the Company, within the meaning of Item 408 of Regulation S-K. Additionally, Holdings did not adopt or terminate any Rule 10b5-1 trading arrangement during the third quarter of 2026.

On September 28, 2026, Daniel E. Ellis, Executive Vice President, Chief Operations, Development and Marketing Officer of the Company, adopted a Rule 10b5-1 trading arrangement that is intended to satisfy the affirmative defense of Rule 10b5-1(c) for the purchase of shares of the Company's Common Stock with an aggregate purchase price of up to $26,400 through December 16, 2027, with the aggregate number of shares to be purchased dependent upon the prices at which purchases are effected under the arrangement. The 10b5-1 trading arrangement was adopted in compliance with the Company's Insider Trading Policy.

2027 Annual Meeting

The Company plans to hold its 2027 Annual Meeting of Stockholders (the "2027 Annual Meeting") on June 10, 2027. The time and location of the 2027 Annual Meeting will be specified in the 2027 proxy statement. Because the 2027 Annual Meeting will be more than thirty (30) days prior to the anniversary of the Company's 2026 Annual Meeting of Stockholders, the Company is disclosing a new deadline for submission of stockholder proposals for inclusion in the 2027 proxy statement pursuant to Rule 14a-8 under the Exchange Act. In accordance with Rule 14a-5(f) of the Exchange Act, the Company is hereby informing stockholders that to be considered for inclusion in the 2027 proxy statement, stockholder proposals submitted under Rule 14a-8 of the Exchange Act must be in writing and received by the Corporate Secretary at the Company's principal offices at One AMC Way, 11500 Ash Street, Leawood, Kansas 66211, no later than 5:00 pm Central Time on March 9, 2027, which the Company has determined to be a reasonable time before it expects to begin to print and send its proxy materials. Such proposals must also comply with the remaining requirements of Rule 14a-8. Any proposal submitted after the foregoing deadline will not be considered timely and will be excluded from the 2027 proxy statement.

Additionally, in accordance with the advance notice provisions set forth in the Company's Bylaws, in order for a stockholder proposal submitted outside of Rule 14a-8 or a director nomination submitted by a stockholder to be considered timely, it must be received by the Corporate Secretary not earlier than February 10, 2027, and no later than March 12, 2027. In addition to satisfying the foregoing requirements under the Company's Bylaws, to comply with the universal proxy rules, shareholders who intend to solicit proxies in support of director nominees other than the Company's nominees must provide notice that sets forth the information required by Rule 14a-19 under the Exchange Act no later than April 11, 2027.
